

TRIMMING $3.5 BILLION . . .

Latest Budget Cuts Unveiled

Washington (AP) — The administration disclosed Sunday where it will use the knife to trim spending by $3.5 billion — which it said is all that remains of the $6 billion budget reduction demanded by Congress.

"We're living with this spending cut," Charles J. Zwick, director of the Budget Bureau, said at the annual midyear progress report news conference on the budget.

Zwick predicted the deficit at the end of the fiscal year next June 30 will be $5 billion.

$3 Billion Lower

This figure, often quoted by administration officials in recent months, is $3 billion lower than the one made when the budget was presented last January. That's because estimates of receipts have risen $1.3 billion since then to $179.4 billion while estimates of expenditures have been scaled down $1.7 billion to $184.4 billion.

While several major appropriations bills still are hanging in Congress, Zwick said, it appears that by adjournment day Congress itself will have made $3.3 billion of the $6 billion in spending cuts it imposed on the administration as the price of passing the tax surcharge.

After adjusting for some $900 million in re-estimates and amendments since January in programs affected by the cutback law, he said, the administration is left with the need to find $3.5 billion that can be cut.

It will be done, he said, by slicing away:

—$1 billion in defense spending not linked to the Vietnam war.

—$1 billion in government domestic and foreign loan programs, with the hope the private money market will fill the breach.

—$200 million from highway spending, mostly by holding up the start of selected projects.

—$100 million from the space program.

—$1.2 billion among all other civilian agencies.

Departments and agencies facing the heaviest cuts include: Defense, $989 million; Farm Credit Administration, $650 million; Agriculture, $467 million; Health, Education and Welfare, $380 million; Export-Import Bank, $350 million and Transportation, $230 million.

Zwick said the target reductions assigned each agency are as precise as possible but must be considered tentative because there is no way of predicting with certainty what Congress may do in the remaining weeks or months of this session.

Must Wait

Only when Congress closes shop will the administration know the exact amount it must cut, he said.

"The longer they're here," he said, "the harder our problems."

As an example Zwick cited the action of the Senate Friday in approving a bill designed to force President Johnson to spend $91 million in "impacted area" funds he had decided would go unspent as part of the economy drive.

The money would go to school districts whose enrollments are swollen by the presence of large numbers of federal employees.

"First they ask us to make the cuts," Zwick said, "and when we make them they express doubts as to our priorities."

Some Already Hit

Zwick noted the $3.5 billion in cuts the administration is now shooting for will in many cases be applied to agencies that have already been nicked by Congress.

The $100 million the administration expects to squeeze out of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, for example, is in addition to $250 million already slashed from the request made for NASA in January, he said.

The reductions in the space agency's funds will not be made in the manned lunar landing program, Zwick said.

Red Guns Claim U.S. Colonel And South Vietnam General

Saigon (AP) — North Vietnamese gunners shot down a helicopter Sunday near the Duc Lap Green Beret border-watching post, killing a South Vietnamese brigadier general and a U.S. colonel. Around Saigon, sharp fighting surged on two sides of the city.

Only two of six persons aboard survived the crash of the helicopter eight miles northeast of Duc Lap, in prime enemy infiltration territory near the Cambodian border northeast of Saigon. Dead were Brig. Gen. Truong Quang An, chief of the 23rd Division in the central highlands; his wife, and the American colonel who was his senior adviser.

The colonel was not identified pending notification of kin.

An was on an inspection tour of the camp, which withstood a siege by 3,000 North-Vietnamese two weeks ago.

Kill 22 Foes

U.S. paratroopers, infantrymen and helicopter gunships reported killing 22 enemy in two battles that began Saturday and went on Sunday — one just south of the capital in the Mekong Delta and another 30 miles northwest of Saigon.

Inside the capital, terrorists assassinated an election official in an effort to disrupt voting for a vacant seat in the House of Representatives.

In naval action, a U.S. spokesman said the destroyers Berkeley and Harwood sank or damaged at least 45 enemy supply boats in waters about 90 miles north of the demilitarized zone. Air spotters said some of the boats were 60 to 70 feet long.

In one of the battles near Saigon, 101st Airborne Division troops reported killing 35 enemy in a 16-hour battle with part of an veteran Viet Cong regiment at X Sa Nho village northwest of the capital near Trang Bang. They took two prisoners and put their own losses at 12 killed, 21 wounded.

Burn Houses

After the enemy force pulled out, the paratroopers burned down most of the houses in the village. A spokesman said every home set afire contained North Vietnamese army equipment, weapons, packs or uniforms.

U.S. ground and air forces also pursued small groups of Viet Cong soldiers on the run in the Mekong Delta, 17 miles south of Saigon. Helicopter gunships accounted for most of the 47 enemy dead, while U.S. casualties were reported to number five wounded.

The election official slain in Saigon's Cholon section was

Occupation Protested

Sydney, Australia (UPI) — Conductor Franz Reiger, a German who was born in Czechoslovakia, said he and his 60 musicians had signed a pact not to play in Czechoslovakia or any Warsaw Pact country as a protest.

Prague (AP) — Czechoslovak leaders, pressed by the Kremlin, have agreed to declare that their country's western borders are not secure and must be "defended" by its Warsaw Pact allies, informed sources said Sunday.

This means occupation troops will be stationed on Czechoslovakia's western borders indefinitely and the Soviet promise to withdraw when the situation "normalizes" does not mean a complete withdrawal, these informants added.

No Announcement

Although there has been no official announcement, articles in the Soviet Communist Party organ Pravda indicate Russian intentions. Pravda said Sunday that Czechoslovakia is taking "the first steps toward normalization" but its leaders have failed to deal "a decisive blow to hostile forces still trying to act."

The sources in Prague said the pledge to make the western borders declaration was included in the Moscow accord signed by Czechoslovak and Soviet leaders Aug. 28, a week after the Soviet-led invasion.

They said district leaders of the Czechoslovak Communist Party were briefed on the agreement in the past few days, and a Soviet first deputy foreign minister, Vassily V. Kuznetsov, was sent to Prague to accelerate Czechoslovak compliance with its provisions.

Chiefs Confer

Communist Party chief Alexander Dubcek, Premier Oldrich Cernik and President Ludvik Svoboda conferred Sunday about their talks with Kuznetsov. Their meeting was held at Lany Castle, 18 miles northwest of Prague.

In the capital, Red army soldiers paraded with carnations in their machine guns to celebrate the Soviet Armed Forces Day. No Czechoslovak army units participated and very few spectators turned out to watch the parade.

The informants said Czechoslovak leaders also pledged to:

—Change the political development of Czechoslovakia to conform with the conservative Soviet brand of communism.

Remove Three

—Remove from office Interior Minister Josef Pavel, Deputy Premier Ota Sik and Foreign Minister Jiri Hajek.

—Reintroduce censorship to insure that news media do not campaign against countries that participated in the invasion, the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, East Germany, Poland and Hungary.

—Declare invalid the 14th Congress of the Czechoslovak Communist Party, held clandestinely while party leaders were prisoners in Moscow.

Withdraw Request

—Withdraw Hajek's formal request for a hearing on the Czechoslovak crisis by the United Nations Security Council.

—Take no reprisals against any Czechoslovak citizens who cooperated with the invading armies.

In return, the sources said, Czechoslovak leaders secured a Soviet pledge that when the occupation troops leave, Russian security organs will leave with them.

Demand Dropped

The Russians also wanted Czechoslovak leaders to declare that there was a "counterrevolution" in their country, but the Prague leadership protested and the demand was dropped, the informants added.

Both sides agreed that a commission will be formed to discuss compensation to Czechoslovakia for damage caused by the invading armies.

So far Czechoslovak leaders have complied with only some of the Kremlin demands, although they have adopted a go-slow policy in their post-January liberalization program.

15 Ghetto Youth Offered Chance To Attend NWU

By LUCILLE HOWARD
Star Staff Writer

Fifteen young men and women from Lincoln and Omaha ghetto areas were able to enroll in college this fall because Nebraska Wesleyan University wanted to get its campus "involved in minority group problems."

Offering the minority group youths a complete financial package to attend NWU, the Lincoln school started the first phase of a two-part "Operation Crossroads" program developed by four private Nebraska institutions of higher education.

"Our aims are to open roads for disadvantaged youth to move from the ghetto to the campus and to open ways for involvement in community problems by students going from the campus to the ghetto," explained NWU Chaplain Dr. Jerald Walker.

Still In Planning

The second phase, still in the planning stages, is expected to include a semester and a summer of residence in the Omaha ghetto for some college students within an academic and community development program.

Joining with NWU in Operation Crossroads are Creighton University in Omaha, Doane College in Crete and Dana College in Blair.

Besides making it possible for more minority group students to attend the four schools involved, the project is intended to develop an experimental learning situation for other students and to provide opportunities for students to engage in problem-solving efforts in problem-ridden low-income neighborhoods, according to Walker.

Minority group students selected for the first phase have the potential to do college work. "While most of the 15 meet NWU entrance standards, tutorial assistance will be available for those who need it," it was pointed out.

3 From Lincoln

Twelve of the group are from Omaha and three are from Lincoln High Schools. Local pastors, the United Methodist Community Center in Omaha, other Methodist agencies and high school teachers helped recruit the students.

In addition to the student loans and federal Economic Opportunity Grants, the financial packages were bolstered by a two-year $20,000 grant from the Division of Higher Education of the United Methodist Church.

Initial plans for Operation Crossroads included enrollment of 15 minority group students by each college for four years, bringing the total number involved to 240 students, according to Walker.

'Prepared to Help'

"We believe the four colleges with low student-faculty ratios are prepared to provide the personal attention students from disadvantaged backgrounds may require," he said.

The second phase of "Crossroads," offering opportunities for participation in ghetto areas, is tentatively planned to include a half dozen junior or senior students from each of the four campuses, the chaplain reported.

These students would be involved with community welfare organizations in Omaha while they live in the ghetto, in both a practical and academic program, he explained. Creighton would supervise this phase of the program, aimed at building local community leadership.

The Omaha school is developing specific plans for the second phase in order to seek foundation financial support. The group has been in contact with a major national foundation which indicated that a proposal should be submitted for consideration.

Israeli And Egyptian Forces Exchange Fire Across Suez

Tel Aviv (AP) — Israeli and Egyptian forces traded heavy shellfire for more than four hours Sunday in one of the fiercest fights across the Suez canal since the Middle East war of June 5-10, 1967.

Each side blamed the other for starting the shooting and Israel sought and was granted a special Security Council meeting Sunday night at the United Nations in New York to press its charge of a "flagrant and unprovoked violation of the cease-fire" along the canal, the latest hot spot in Middle East hostilities.

Israeli spokesmen said 10 Israeli soldiers were killed in the battle and two U.N. observation posts were hit. One member of the U.N. observation team was reported wounded and Israel said the Egyptians violated an agreement with the observers to stop the shooting.

An Israeli complaint of Egyptian provocations on the canal already was before the Security Council and observers believed the bid for an urgent session was aimed at forestalling any Egyptian attempt to weaken Israel's case by blaming the Israelis for starting the latest battle.

Egypt also complained to the Security Council. The Egyptian high command was reported to have agreed to break off Sunday's fighting only on condition that Israel stop building up its forces along the canal.

The Egyptian command also said that because of the "concentrated, premeditated shelling of Egyptian tanks" it was immediately taking unspecified "precautionary defensive measures" along its eastern borders.

Wallace Expects To Do 'Real Well'

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

Third party presidential candidate George Wallace will "do real well in Nebraska" this fall, one of the former Alabama governor's aides predicted in Lincoln Sunday.

"We are having a good response from your state," John DeCarlo of Birmingham noted.

"A number of polls have indicated our strength. Many people are calling and writing. We are getting real good support."

'Little Premature'

DeCarlo said it is "a little premature" to speculate whether Wallace could win Nebraska in November, but American Party Chairman Dr. Gerald Byrd of Omaha suggested that victory is possible.

Wallace could win, Byrd said. "I am sure he is going to carry a good part" of the vote, he noted. "Whether it is 34% or not is in question."

With three parties in the presidential contest, it is conceivably possible to gain a plurality with only 34% of the total vote.

Active In Organization

DeCarlo, who is on leave of absence as a deputy district attorney in Birmingham, was active in organizing the successful effort last spring to form the American Party in Nebraska.

About 25 party members, including delegates elected at the May 14 primary election, met in Lincoln Sunday to fulfill requirements for a "national convention" to formally nominate Wallace as their presidential candidate.

Members of the press were asked to leave the meeting before it began.

Sunday's meeting also discussed plans for the party's state convention scheduled for Grand Island next Saturday, Byrd noted.

Campaign Planned

Wallace plans to campaign in Nebraska sometime this fall, DeCarlo told newsmen.

His appearance at the turbulent organizational convention in Omaha last March touched off a brief, but violent, fracas at Civic Auditorium followed by several days of disturbances in Omaha's Near North Side.

Wallace is going to take votes from both Vice President Hubert Humphrey and Republican nominee Richard Nixon, DeCarlo said.

His candidacy is now qualified in at least 44 states, DeCarlo noted. Wallace's name will eventually be affixed to the ballot in 49 states, perhaps in all 50 if court action in Ohio is successful, DeCarlo said.

News Summary

(C) New York Times News Service

Washington — As a result of the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia, the United States is pressing its European allies to take a greater role in the military strengthening of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Specifically, the administration would like to see NATO army divisions restored to full strength, the West German Air Force equipped with conventional weapons, and plans for a quick mobilization of European reserves improved. (More on Page 11.)

European Interests Second?

London — In Europe, however, anxieties about United States policy have been exacerbated, and there is a widespread feeling that European interests come second in the big-power game between Moscow and Washington.

Czechs May Take Action

Prague — In Czechoslovakia, Deputy Premier Gustav Husak told the Slovak Communist Party's Central Committee that action may be taken shortly to prevent the departure of nationals seeking refuge abroad.

Battle Fought At Suez Canal

Jerusalem — Israel and the United Arab Republic fought a four-hour artillery duel across the Suez Canal along most of its length. The Egyptians said Israel began the shelling as a reprisal for a previous incident, the Israelis said the Egyptians began it by firing on a patrol across the canal. (More on Page 1.)

Pueblo Speculation Continues

Seoul — Silence out of North Korea and disclaimers by United States authorities failed to end speculation in Seoul that at least some of the crew of the captured intelligence ship Pueblo would be released in the near future. Pueblo would be released in the near future.

Mexico Facing Student Revolt

Mexico City — Mexico, once an "untouchable island" with respect to student revolt, is seeking a way out of the most vehement period of student agitation in almost 40 years. What began in unpolitical and unideological circumstances has mushroomed into the country's No. 1 political problem.

Humphrey Opens Campaign

Washington — In what he designated as the opening address of his campaign, Hubert Humphrey appeared before the B'nai B'rith convention in Washington and defined the 1968 election as a "referendum in human rights." He charged that Richard M. Nixon and George C. Wallace were in competition against him trying to exploit "fears and hates" aroused by this issue. (More on Page 11.)

Federal Budget Cuts Told

Washington — The administration plans to shield key social programs such as poverty, manpower training and low-income housing from federal spending reductions ordered by Congress. The move was disclosed by the Bureau of the Budget in releasing an agency-by-agency breakdown of anticipated spending cutbacks. (More on Page 1.)

Nixon Supports Israel

Washington — Richard Nixon, in a statement prepared for the same audience, dealt with foreign policy, declaring that the balance of power in the Middle East "must be tipped in Israel's favor." (More on Page 11.)

Illinois Beauty Begins Miss America Reign

Atlantic City, N.J. (AP) — An 18-year-old Illinois beauty who prefers cutoff blue jeans and sweatshirts to evening gowns began her reign Sunday as Miss America 1969.

Judith Ann Ford, a bouncy, natural blonde trampoliner who spiraled her way to the crown Saturday night with an amazing acrobatic display, was radiant as she appeared at a morning news conference after only two hours sleep.

"I got up and expected it to be yesterday and last night was all a dream," said Judi, smiling and flashing her green eyes.

Shows Poise

The 5-foot-7 beauty from Belvidere, Ill., handled questions from reporters with the poise she showed throughout the four nights of competition. Are you a romantic girl? she was asked. "It depends on whom I'm with."

Do blondes have more fun? "I've never been a brunette to compare it with."

Pageant officials instructed her not to answer when asked what she thought of the Miss Black America contest held at the same time in a hotel four blocks from the pageant in Convention Hall.

'White Stereotype'

The Miss Black America contest was sponsored by a Negro-owned modeling agency and a civil rights organization to protest "the white stereotype of beauty represented by Miss America."

The winner was pretty Sandra Williams, a 19-year-old sophomore majoring in sociology at Maryland State University.

The Miss America pageant did not symbolize feminine beauty because "there were no blacks represented," said Sandra, who performed an African dance in the talent competition. She is from Philadelphia.

Noisy Protest

A group called "Women's Liberation" also protested the Miss America pageant, claiming it denied young women their suffrage. Two of six women were arrested after staging a noisy demonstration in the Convention Hall balcony just before the midnight crowning.

The new Miss America said she was nervous at the time and didn't know what was happening.

Judi was a straight-A student in her freshmen year at the University of Southern Louisiana where she became the first coed in the school's 61-year history to win a varsity athletic letter.

She finished second in the national AAU championships this year and was the only woman member of the trampoliner team.

"It was a different experience," said Judi, who measures 36-24½-36 and weighs 125 pounds.

Boy Back Home

In case any fellows are interested, she has a boy friend back home. But she blushed when asked his name and didn't answer.

Judi likes popular music but "can't carry a tune," wears her skirts two to three inches above her knee, but said she feels most comfortable in cutoff blue jeans and sweatshirts.

After her year's reign in which she can expect to travel 200,000 miles and earn about $85,000 in personal appearance fees, Judi plans to finish her education at the University of Illinois. She hopes to teach physical education.

LEON . . . at controls with his parents, left, and Sitorius.

By Glenn Kreuscher, Farm Editor

To many people in the cattle world, the beef breed Charolais and the firm of Litton Charolais Ranch at Chillicothe, Mo., are synonymous.

Jerry Litton of the Litton firm has spread the gospel and merits of the big, white, beef breed throughout the nation and when it comes to selling your product, other cattlemen say the 30-year-old Litton is "a master at the trade."

Litton was at ringside during the Nebraska State Fair Charolais show when practically every time a top winner was announced, it was a Litton entry.

The champion of the Charolais show was owned by Litton in partnership with Arthur Godfrey of radio and TV fame.

Godfrey had heard about the cattlemen from Missouri, who was coming up with new ideas in the cattle business, and Litton was invited to appear on a one-hour radio program to discuss Charolais.

To give you an idea of what kind of salesman the tall, slender, young Missouri cattlemen really is, a week later Godfrey flew out to Missouri to see "those wonderful cattle."

When Godfrey went home, he owned a half-interest in LCR Sir Sam 154th and had plans to cross his Charolais bull on his Hereford herd in Virginia.

Litton already had plans to show the bull so Godfrey hit it rich in the show-ring in fast order. Since the purchase two weeks ago, the bull has won a reserve championship at the Missouri State Fair and added the Nebraska fair victory.

To understand Litton's success in promoting his cattle, we asked Jerry Litton how he got started in the business.

"Nerve, I suppose, in borrowing every cent I could lay my hands on to start a Charolais herd," he said.

"First, you have to realize there hasn't been any progress in the cattle business or change for 30 years. About all the cattlemen have been doing is his underwear."

"The first for Litton Charolais came in 1952 when we purchased a Charolais bull to cross on our Hereford herd as an experiment."

"I had read about this breed in FFA and when the first crop of crossbred calves arrived they weighed 110 pounds more at weaning time than our straightbred cattle."

"We had to start with some mavericks, but we saw the possibilities early so I went out and borrowed every penny I could get my hands on to go into Charolais cattle. All I could get together was $120,000 at the start but there is no doubt about it having been a good investment today," said Litton as the show officials called out another championship win for Litton Charolais Ranch.

You become enthused just visiting with Jerry Litton.

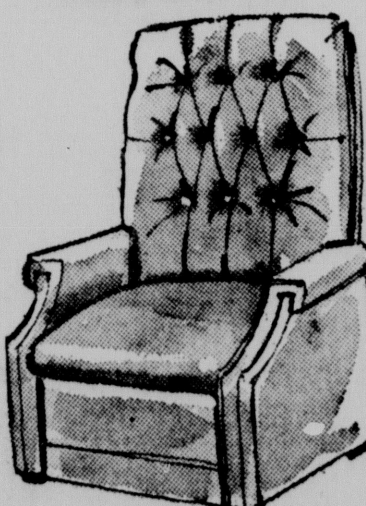

He mixes records, statistics and case history reports along with the actual goods of a show herd that appears a superb example of big, beef cattle for the visitor to look at.

If the cattle were not present and you didn't know Litton's active interest in breeding Charolais cattle, you could take the Missouri fair for a Wall Street businessman.

Anyone that has the idea you need to look and act like a hick to be good in agriculture needs to meet up with this well-outfitted young cattelman.

In fact the tailored suit, cuff links and boots add a business touch to agriculture that might be one of the secrets Litton uses to create the idea that Charolais cattle are an industry worth recognizing.

International Monetary Fund Calls For U.S. To Back Fiscal Restraint

© New York Times Service

Washington — It is "essential" that the United States back up its policy of fiscal restraint with monetary restraint as well, the International Monetary Fund warned Sunday.

In its annual report the fund said that, partly because of the long delay in enacting the tax bill in the U.S., "It has now become necessary temporarily to restrain demand expansion so as to bring the growth of real gross national product well below the capacity (growth) rate of four per cent and thus to relieve upward pressures on costs and prices and to dampen imports."

The main thrust of the fund's report came in this sentence:

"The restoration of enduring confidence and stability in the international monetary system depends primarily on the achievement of early and progressive improvement in the external positions of both the United Kingdom and the U.S."

Mainly A Review
The lengthy report was devoted mainly to a review of developments in the year 1967 and early 1968, including a detailed account of developments in gold markets. Official monetary gold reserves declined by $3 billion from the beginning of 1967 until sales to private markets were stopped in mid-March of this year.

On the policy front for the future, the fund foresaw a sharp reduction in the growth of imports in the four countries that have taken restrictive measures to cool off the economy — the U.S., Britain, Canada and Japan. It added:

"Clearly the maintenance of a satisfactory growth of world trade and activity in such a situation would require expansionary policies on the part of some other industrial countries . . . fortunately the economic recovery of Continental Europe from the marked 1966-67 slowdown is proceeding apace, encouraged by governmental policies."

'Easy Conditions'

It said "a striking feature of European policies in 1968 has been the fostering of easy monetary conditions, which continue to be necessary in the interest of international payments equilibrium."

In its comment on U.S. monetary policy, the report said continued restraint would be necessary "to provide firm support to the programs of control over outflows of U.S. capital." It said that "pursuit of fiscal and monetary policies of a general character now envisaged, combined with the strengthened programs of capital control, should make for a substantial improvement in the U.S. balance of payments."

Some members of the Federal Reserve Board have suggested that as the program of fiscal restraint "bites," monetary policy should be eased to head off the risk of too severe a slowdown. The report appeared to give little support to that viewpoint.

Youth Uses Scraps To Build Equipment

By GLENN KREUSCHER
Farm Editor

It is unusual to find a farm youth who can use odds and ends from a scrap pile and other discarded materials to build a piece of equipment that looks like it came from the factory.

This feat, which resulted in a 10-horsepower crawler tractor, had State Fair visitors making planned trips to the farm mechanics division of the Future Farmers of America exhibit.

The designer, engineer and manufacturer was Leon Bettenhauser, a junior in the FFA Chapter at West Point High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bettenhauser of West Point.

Adviser's Story

What seemed so unusual about the well-designed crawler tractor was the story Leon's FFA adviser Marvin Sitorius had to tell.

"Leon made up his own plan and design in his head. What he couldn't find among the junk on the farm he designed from scrap pieces," Sitorius said.

The crawler's first trip away from home was to the county fair where Leon pitted against commercial models in a pulling contest and won easily in competition with factory models of garden tractors.

Sweepstakes Award

Another item at the State Fair produced by Leon was a Mini-bike and when the fair officials got through adding up his blue ribbons the sweepstakes award in farm mechanics went to the West Point FFA Chapter.

Sitorius said he remembers Leon first as a freshman. "He came in one evening and wanted to know if I would show him how to weld and if he could practice until he got picked up after school."

"Normally, we don't begin with freshman but this young man was so sincere I showed him, and after that Leon was on his way."

Quiet Youth

Leon is an extremely quiet young man but start talking about engines and his eyes glisten as he starts telling about how he designs his equipment.

Equipment representatives that viewed the exhibit were predicting "don't be surprised if you see equipment manufacturers visiting a farm near West Point because Leon has a gift for designing machinery and engines and there is always a shortage of this talent."

Leon has his sights set on some advanced designs that are still on the drawing boards in industry research programs.

There is just a chance some of Leon's work will be ready for next year's State Fair.

It would be quite an attraction for Nebraska's 100th fair to have a preview of some FFA designs that have been puzzling industry and Leon doesn't think anything is impossible if the scrap pile holds out long enough to put ideas into finished designs.

Jack L. Allsman Relieved Of Duty At Yankee Hill

Jack L. Allsman has been relieved of his duties as constable of the Yankee Hill Justice Court, Justice of the Peace Edward F. Gallagher said Sunday.

Gallagher said the action was taken at Allsman's request following his being fined $200 in Lancaster County Court Friday on a charge of disturbing the peace in an incident allegedly involving the stopping of two women and making "improper advances" to one.

The position of constable is part time.

He reportedly received a broken hip, fractured ribs, severe cuts, and possible internal injuries in the mishap.

Patrol officials said the accident was still under investigation as it appeared impossible to establish which direction the vehicles were traveling at the time of the collision.

Officers said the collision occurred at the junction of State Spur 315 and State Highway 15 four miles west of Dwight.

Fairbury Crash Kills 3 Persons, All From Filley

Fairbury (UPI) — Three persons were killed in a two-truck crash at the junction of 136 and 15 in the Fairbury city limits.

Police identified the dead as Nelson Armstrong, 44, Orval H. Hendricksen, 56, and his son, Daniel L. Hendricksen, 23, all of Filley.

The three were occupants of a pickup truck which was heading east. It was not known who was driving when the accident happened Saturday afternoon.

James L. Schoenrock, 16, of Ohio, driver of the commercial truck in the collision, was shaken up and taken to Jefferson County Memorial Hospital and later released.

Armstrong and Orval Hendricksen died enroute to a hospital. Daniel Hendricksen died at the scene.

Authorities said the pickup truck apparently stopped at the junction stop sign in the center lane of traffic, but apparently did not see the oncoming truck driven by Schoenrock.

Stratton Man Dies In Truck Accident

Stratton (UPI) — A rural Stratton man was fatally injured Sunday in a one-vehicle crash seven miles north of here.

The Nebraska State Patrol identified the victim as Lawrence E. Redfield, 41, whose northbound pickup truck went out of control on a county road about 9 a.m.

The patrol said the Redfield vehicle plunged over an embankment.

been the starting point for visitors to the Harold Warp Pioneer Village this summer.

The expansion, 100 by 200 feet, is the first thing people tour after they pass through the ticket gate. And they've passed through at the usual summer rate of about 1,000 persons a day since the addition was completed in June, officers said.

Although it was an "addition," the expansion wasn't necessarily planned as a gain in space, according to the new village manager La Vern Nielson.

Rather the idea was to get most of the transportation exhibits in one area. The exhibits had been scattered about several sections of the main building.

The move also allowed officers to gather all paintings, sculptures and other art works into the new "fine arts" area, formerly occupied by automobiles.

Nielson, who worked out of Chicago for Harold Warp's manufacturing industries for 15 years, took over village managerial duties Sept. 1.

He replaced T. C. Jensen, who suffered a heart attack this summer. Jensen had managed the village for Warp since its June, 1953, opening.

Nielson indicated as he walked about the village that he will make changes of his own as he becomes more familiar with the layout.

"There's always a need to move something here or there — to make room for something else. It's constant ... there's a lot of shifting going on all the time," Nielson noted.

30,000 Pieces

The village, often praised as one of the top tourist attractions in the country, claims more than 30,000 exhibit pieces in 22 buildings which cover 20 acres of land.

The village has everything from steam engines and a blacksmith shop to a schoolhouse and church.

The bigger items all have descriptive material nearby, citing the history of the item and giving credit to the former owner or finder.

"Everything here has some history, or we don't buy it," Nielson said.

Medal To Honor Fremont Soldier Killed In Vietnam

Omaha — A Fremont Army sergeant, killed in Vietnam in January, will receive the Silver Star Medal for heroism, posthumously, Monday at 4 p.m. at the offices of the Creighton University military department.

Mrs. Jeanne Collins of Route 3, Fremont, will accept the medal on behalf of her late husband, Staff Sergeant Billy G. Collins.

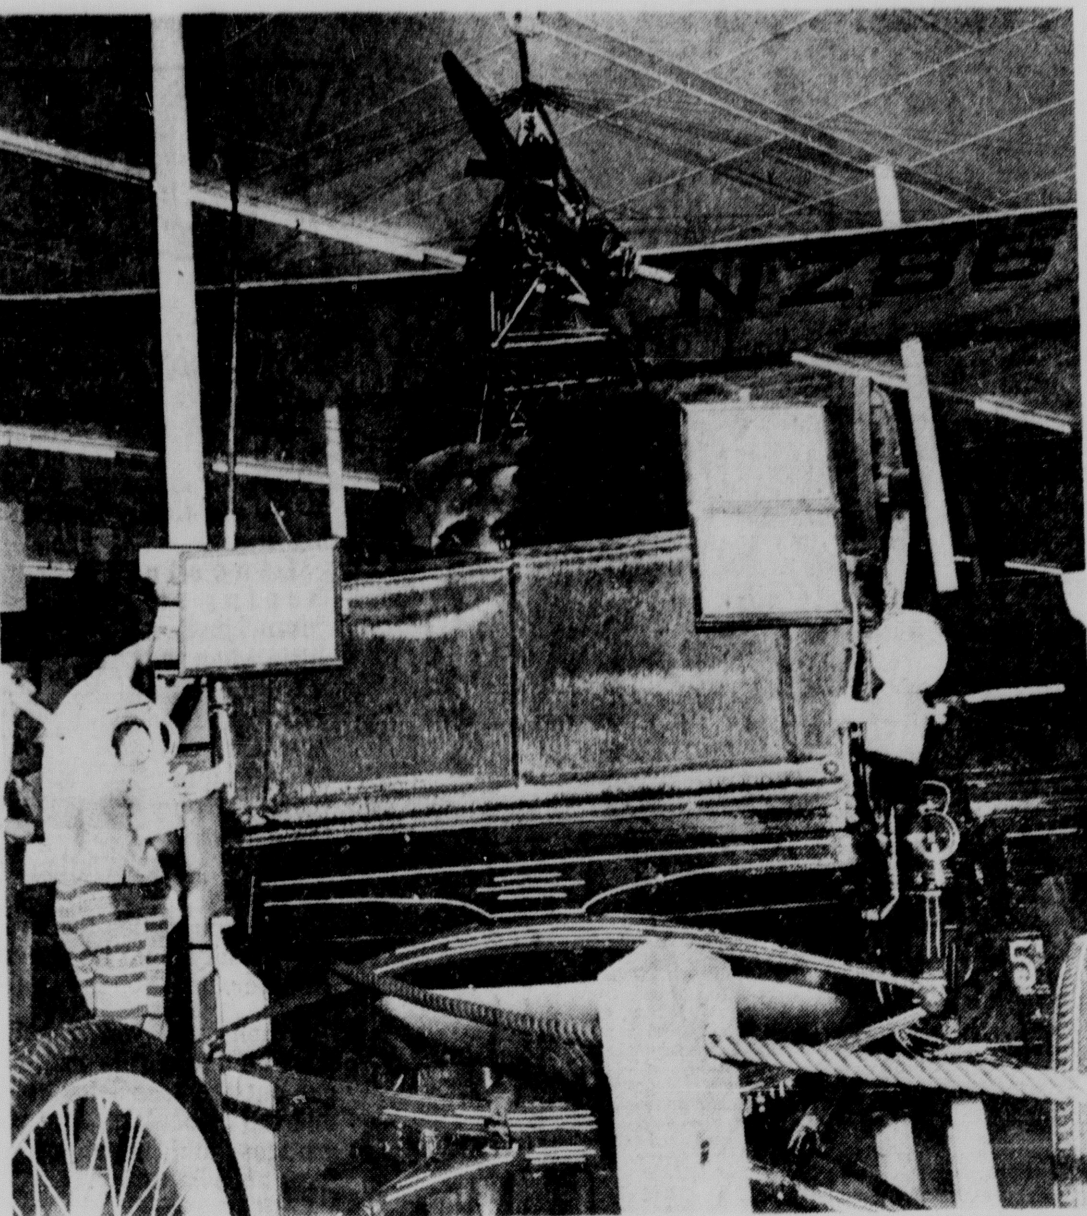

The presentation will be made by Col. Levene J. Weigel, commandant of the Creighton University ROTC Brigade.

Street Sweepers Praised By Pope

Castel Gandolfo, Italy (AP) — Pope Paul VI praised garbage collectors and street sweepers Sunday for their contribution to "good taste, harmony and clean aspect of things framing life."

The Pope addressed a group of sanitation workers from Florence visiting him at his summer residence in this Alban hill town outside Rome.

"We want to cordially shake hands with you," the pontiff told the Florentine sanitation men "and render honor to your name and your obscure service."

Field Day Will Include Four Tours

Program plans are complete for the annual Fall Crops and Livestock Field Day to be held at the University of Nebraska North Platte Station Sept. 17.

Superintendent Leslie F. Sheffield says the program will include four tours of the research in progress, a brief speaking program following the noon hour and a time for consultation with individual research staff members.

The field day will get underway at 9 a.m. with coffee and rolls served by the Agriculture Committee of the North Platte Chamber of Commerce.

The four tours, which will be repeated in the afternoon, will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will include: a livestock and forage tour, a corn and sugar beet tour, an irrigation and vegetable crops tour and a dryland farm tour.

Following the noon hour, Sheffield will welcome the group and bring them up-to-date on recent developments at the station. Dr. Earle Raun, chairman of the University's Department of Entomology, will discuss the green bug and western bean cutworm situations, and Dr. R. W. Kleis, associate director, Agricultural Experiment Stations, will discuss the "Role of Regional Stations in the Statewide Experiment Station."

Following the afternoon tours, those attending will have a chance to visit personally with the research staff members from North Platte and other Nebraska experiment stations.

In issuing an invitation to area farmers and ranchers to attend, Sheffield said, "Research at the North Platte Station is geared to the present and future needs of farmers and ranchers in this area, and we hope you will take this opportunity to acquaint yourselves with the program."

Plans Proceeding To Build Golf Course Near Chadron

Chadron (UPI) — Plans were proceeding Sunday to construct a nine-hole golf course two miles south of here on an area of 101 acres.

Jim Helzer, Chadron insurance agent, elected to head a six-member steering committee, said he will prepare an application for a $100,000 outdoor recreation grant from the Nebraska Game and Park Commission.

Helzer said 50% of the $100,000 grant is to be funded by the federal government, 25% by the state of Nebraska and 25% to be raised locally through the sale of stock, revenue bonds or other means.

The application must be filed by Oct. 1 to be eligible for funds available through fiscal year 1969.

A temporary agreement was reached with the city to supply the water from the city's present water supply.

The city of Chadron is now installing a new water system, and as soon as it is installed and working, the new golf course committee can procure water from the old system.

Helzer said the golf course will use approximately one-half million gallons of water per day for 120 days. He has been working on the project for over 18 months.

Previous estimates on the cost of the golf range varied from $60,000 to $90,000 in addition to the land.

Monday Services Set For Mother, Five Children

Wahoo (UPI) — Funeral services will be held here Monday for a mother and five of her children who were killed in a car-train accident near Yutan Wednesday.

The services for Mrs. Cecil Jordan, 33, and her children will be at 2 p.m. at the Methodist Church, with burial at the Wahoo Cemetery.

Four of the children were killed outright in the accident. They were Michael, 10, Debra, 7, Julie, 5, and Marty, 2. Randy, 9, died later in a hospital.

Lisa, 3, and Kimberly, 1, were hospitalized in Lincoln.

Growers To Meet

Ogallala (UPI) — The Nebraska Wheat Growers Association will hold its regular monthly meeting here Sept. 16 at 9:30 A.M. at the Elks Club.

Survey Shows Over 100,000 People Visited Five Loup Power Park Areas

Columbus — An attendance in excess of 100,000 persons has taken place at the five recreation areas of the Loup Power District this summer, according to a survey conducted by the Columbus Chamber of Commerce in conjunction with the Loup District.

Recreation seekers from 35 Nebraska counties and 11 states other than Nebraska were swimming, fishing, picnicking, camping, boating, water skiing and sight-seeing on the day of the survey, Aug. 25.

The survey was conducted by teams of interviewers at each of the entrances to Lake North, Loup Park, Powerhouse Park, Trailrace Park and Headworks Park, the five recreation areas of the Loup District, four of them located near Columbus and one, Headworks Park, located just southwest of Genoa.

Frequent Comment

Visitors came from all parts of the United States, from California and Arizona to Maryland and New York state, and from all parts of Nebraska, from Dawes County in the far northwest to Gage County in the southeast part of the state.

Interviewers found that the most frequent comment about the recreation facilities provided was "they are very nice." Some complained that the fishing was bad, while others in the same area said it was good.

Other comments included "more lights needed," "we would like more sand on the beaches of Lake North," "I would like shower facilities," "the grass needs mowing," and "need more electrical hook-ups."

Free Electricity

The fact that free electricity is available for campers and others brought some good comments, as did the availability of fireplace grills and picnic tables.

The favorite activity at all the recreation areas was sight-seeing, which follows the pattern established in national surveys. At Lake North, where 200 acres of water is the prime attraction, swimming was popular with nearly one-third of those surveyed. Other water sports were favorites also, with 18% boating and 13% water skiing.

Return Visitors

A total of 69%, however, noted sight-seeing as their prime activity. As a sidelight, a full 97% of those interviewed at Lake North indicated that they had visited the area before.

Loup Park, located on the north and west shores of Lake Babcock, was also popular with the "returnees," as 82% said that they had visited there before. Picnicking was quite popular at Loup Park, with 37% engaging in that activity. The overnight campers were out in strength at Loup Park, 152 of them, or 14% of the total attendance.

Fishing was popular at Trailrace Park, located about eight miles southeast of Columbus where the Loup Canal water is return to the river, with over half of those in the area fishing. Headworks Park, southwest of Genoa, also showed that fishermen prefer it, as 58% indicated fishing as their favorite activity there.

'Drawing Card'

The survey was conducted to check the impact of the recreation areas on Columbus, and just how important they were as a "drawing card." It was found that about 85% of all visitations at the five areas occurred at Lake North and Loup Park, the two largest of the areas, and the closest to Columbus.

Visitors from the states of California, South Dakota, Iowa, Arizona, Colorado, New York, Illinois, Michigan, Oklahoma, Maryland, and Kansas were enjoying themselves at the recreation sports, but the great majority came from East Central Nebraska.

Rites Set For Dr. Guy Lake, 82, Retired Veterinarian

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday for Dr. Guy M. Lake, 82, a retired veterinarian.

Dr. Lake, of 4203 So. 40th, died Saturday. Services will be at First Plymouth Congregational Chapel.

Dr. Lake was born at Murdock and graduated from Weeping Water High School in 1905. He farmed for several years and graduated from Kansas City Veterinary College in 1917.

He was a veteran of World War I. He moved to Lincoln in 1928.

Dr. Lake was a member of First Plymouth Congregational Church, and a life member of the Kansas School of Veterinary. He was also a member of state national veterinary associations and American Legion Post No. 3 of Lincoln.

Survivors include his wife, Nellie; twins, Dr. Max E.

Lake of Salina, Kan., Mrs. Richard W. E. (Maxine) Guelzaw of Monroe, La.; a twin sister, Mrs. Grace Mooney of Lincoln, a sister, Mrs. James (Gertrude) Sullivan of Nashville, Tenn.; a brother, Dr. Fred D. Lake of Elmwood; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Burial will be at Wabash Cemetery. The Rev. Ford Forsyth will officiate. Memorials may be given to First Plymouth Congregational Church.

IN PERSPECTIVE

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The American male — a mousy guy who can't make up his own mind. Sorry, fellows, but that's the way the men's wear division of one nationwide department store sees it.

Furthermore, this feeble male character has deceived himself into thinking just the opposite. The department store account says 65 per cent of the American males feel that most men dress just to please themselves.

But the cold facts show that 56 per cent of American men take someone along on shopping trips for clothing. Nine out of ten times, this person is his wife.

Men are so conservative in their dress that eight out of 10 haven't changed the kind of stores in which they buy suits in the last ten years.

It must be admitted that when it comes to fashion, women dominate the scene. Women are more fashion-conscious and respond quickly to changes in the apparel world. It is only natural that some of this interest is going to spill over into the ranks of the men.

A woman who knows the latest in style isn't likely to sit back and let her husband be taken in by last year's models. If bright colors are the order of the day, she is likely to steer her husband away from standard blacks and browns.

Men being less knowledgeable and concerned in the field of fashion, they show little resistance to the feminine influence. But it could be that all of this is changing.

It appears that in the past few years, the male population has become more fashion-conscious. The far out and the unorthodox modes of clothing have caught on with the young and in some adult male circles.

While it used to take nearly a generation for men's clothing to change, there are changes now every year. They are not drastic from year to year but they certainly represent a substantial contrast from one generation to another.

The average man doesn't care to make much of a splash with his clothing, which explains the paradox of his conservatism in dress and his growing acceptance of change.

He seeks to conform to the majority of those around him in what he wears, which marks his conservatism. At the same time, this pushes him into accepting changes as they come along in the various items of apparel such as shoes, shirts, ties and suits.

All of this, admittedly, makes life more complicated for a man. Just about the time you get good and used to a certain style and color of shoe, you go back for another pair and find out they aren't even being made any more.

For years, you may have been buying a particular make of shirt. That brand of shirt is still there but not in the same make or style. The same thing happens with suits and ties.

Women have learned to cope with such a situation while men are still frustrated by it. A man's initial reaction is often one of horror to something he adds to his wardrobe a couple of months later.

It must be admitted that wearing apparel these days offers a bewildering choice. You go in to buy one tie, a relatively insignificant accessory, and there are at least hundreds of them to choose from.

Only the lowly handkerchief can be purchased any more with abandon. You can pick between linen and cotton but plain old white is the order of the day.

Whoever popularizes an odd-shaped and colored handkerchief will have destroyed one of the few simple things left in life.

Heredity Element Seems To Prevail

NEW YORK — Which is more important in influencing the actions of a young person — heredity or environment?

It's an ancient question, and more and more people ask it in these troubled times.

The parents of hippies may choose to say that the "environment" of the times is responsible for their offsprings' behavior. The parents of scholarly, unrepentant children like to conclude that the big factor is heredity.

Science has never supplied a technical answer, but a private, informal poll taken among friends indicates that men, being sponsors of their broods, seem to favor heredity; while women, the caretakers of the home, church and school activities, vote for environment.

I have on my desk the results of a psychiatric experiment which would seem — while inconclusive — to bear out the male attitude that heredity is more potent a factor than mother-love and the right schools.

Dr. James Shields, a British psychiatrist, rounded up 44 sets of identical twins who had been raised in different homes from their brothers or sisters.

This was the largest group of "separated" twins ever gathered together in the interest of research.

Dr. Shields compared these 44 pairs with another group of 44 fraternal twins who had been raised, together, in the same household.

He used I.Q. and personality tests, along with interviews and written questionnaires designed to establish each twin's attitudes, mannerisms and present life situations.

And the doctor found:

The identical twins who had seldom (or never) met before this study proved to be much more alike in personality, intelligence, temperament, attitude and mannerisms than the fraternal twins who had been brought up in the same household.

Of course, this could be the result of the natural desire of children seeking for individuality despite a common home base — and Shields said he is "cautious about drawing too many conclusions."

Still, the tests would seem, he said, to be "powerful evidence of the importance of heredity" over environment.

If your child is a genius — take credit.

If he's not — remember, these tests are inconclusive.

Mayor's X-Ray Vision

"I saw how the police were harassed," said Lincoln Mayor Sam Schwartzkopf in telling the Lincoln Sertoma Club of his approval of the actions of Mayor Richard Daley and the Chicago police during the Democratic National Convention. The mayor, apparently, has X-ray vision as he was not in Chicago to see anything.

Whatever he saw, he had to see on TV but this doesn't add up, either. The major TV networks have incurred the wrath of Mayor Daley because, in his opinion, they completely failed to show the police side of the Chicago problem. All they showed was the police use of force, not the provocation for it. So what, we ask Mayor Schwartzkopf, is it that he saw?

The mayor, like so many others, is reacting to a stereotype he has fixed in his mind. He doesn't like the long-haired, dirty hippies. He doesn't like people who desecrate the American flag. He doesn't like vulgar and profane language.

Neither do we like these things. But the popularity of these things has never been in question. The question is how you deal with them. We wonder how the mayor would feel about things in Chicago if he had been one of those who happened to be in the area of the Hilton Hotel Wednesday night, minding his own business and had suddenly been clubbed to the ground?

We wonder if he approves of profanity from police any more than he does a hippie? The Chicago police know how to use it. We wonder if he approves of unmerciful beating of people who are no longer offering any resistance to police? Apparently, Mayor Schwartzkopf thinks provocation justifies any ends. He apparently doesn't know that excessive force, brutality and extreme emotionalism are the greatest threats to freedom in the world today.

The Young Win Again

Crossword puzzle fans will never get rich.

That's one of the indications cropping up in tests being conducted by Cambridge Consultants, a British company trying to find out how to spot people who have what it takes to get ahead. They say that people who like crossword puzzles are not likely to rise to the top of the heap.

On the other hand, according to the company, the person who has a horror of not getting the last word in an argument is the sort of person who will get ahead in business and end up rich.

So put down that crossword puzzle and start arguing with someone. You might want to argue about this: A psychologist says that at any given moment in a college classroom 20 per cent of the students are thinking about sex and paying no attention to the lecture.

Washington Feels That Chicago's Mayor Laid Groundwork For 'Night Stick' Law

WASHINGTON — Whether law dispensed by the end of a policeman's night stick is to overshadow the courts and the legal process is a deeply troubling question in the aftermath of the battle of the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago. Rarely have such fierce emotions, both pro-police and anti-police, been aroused.

The concern in the Department of Justice is that the pattern of police conduct across the country will be determined by Chicago. If majority opinion approves, the unrestrained use of force in putting down demonstrators — the long hairs, the alienated — police elsewhere chafing under current restrictions and great provocation will follow.

To this end Roger Wilkins, head of the Community Relations Service in the Justice Department, talked at length with Rene Davis, coordinator of the Mobilizing Committee to End the War in Vietnam. Davis impressed Wilkins as genuinely desirous of wanting peaceful demonstrations and a liaison with Chicago officials so that this could be achieved.

The goal was a permit for a march to the International Amphitheater not, according to Davis, to disrupt the convention but to put on a peaceful protest. The second request was for permission to use Soldier Field the night of August 29 for a rally against the war and the expected Humphrey nomination.

Late in July, Wilkins went to Chicago to talk with Mayor Daley. He had hardly begun to explain why he thought a link with the mobilizing committee could be helpful when Daley broke in. The mayor, according to a third person who was present, said that his people were peaceful people. While the convention was going on, they would have street carnivals and other diversions that would keep them happy. If there was any trouble, it would come from "outsiders" and the police knew how to handle them. End of interview.

Fearing the worst but hoping against hope for a peaceful outcome, Deputy Attorney General Warren Christopher at the beginning of the convention took up an observation post on the tenth floor of the Conrad Hilton. From that vantage point he observed through binoculars exactly what the police did on Michigan Avenue to suppress the demonstration.

His observations were supplemented by those of Wesley A. Pomeroy, law-enforcement coordinator in the Justice Department. Pomeroy is an old law man, a former sheriff in the West, an unlikely candidate to be stamped by cries of "police brutality." While neither Christopher nor Pomeroy will comment, there is no doubt they were both shocked by the brute force used by the police against bystanders as well as demonstrators.

The Justice Department is pushing an investigation by the FBI into possible violation of a statute dating from 1870 providing jail and fines for "deprivation of rights under color of law." The statute coming out of the Reconstruction Era is aimed at law officers administering

Five days 'til kickoff. After all these long, long months of minor sports — including baseball — we are finally back to the big one.

Lincoln begins to jump just a little when the students return and the pleasant chill of autumn blows away the oppressive heat of August.

And then comes football to stir the city from its summer slumber.

C'mon, all you fanatics, dust off those silly red hats, get out the transistor radios and the binoculars, arm your oranges and count off the days until Saturday.

Do you realize that we choose the next president only eight weeks from tomorrow?

That's a relatively short general election campaign — thanks to the late scheduling of the Democratic national convention.

In this volatile year, it would be sheer folly to try to guess the winner. Perhaps it is safer to say that Nixon is probably ahead today.

Walton

It would be even safer to guess who will win Nebraska. No doubt, it will be Nixon.

If it is true that the Republicans have Nebraska all wrapped up, then the protest votes which are headed toward George Wallace and perhaps to a fourth party liberal alternative may not really matter so much.

Wallace could get a really big vote. His campaign buttons were most in evidence at the State Fair last week; Humphrey buttons were particularly rare.

If Nixon does lead a Republican landslide in Nebraska, the re-election hopes of Bob Denney and Glenn Cunningham would be considerably improved.

That, by the way, was the essence of the final day pleadings of Senator McCarthy's lieutenants in Chicago as Nebraska delegates approached their night of reckoning.

Nixon would beat either Humphrey or McCarthy in Nebraska, it was conceded. But, McCarthy strategists argued, the senator might tighten the race enough to help a Democratic congressional candidate, particularly Clair Callan, win a House seat.

The argument didn't work. McCarthy ended up with six votes from Nebraska's 30 delegates.

Chicago's big black ghetto was quiet all during the Democratic National Convention.

Many of its residents may have been rather pleased to see Chicago cops cracking young white heads for a change. Many more whites now know what the blacks have been getting in some cities — with one difference.

Nobody was killed in the predominantly white convention week demonstrations in Chicago.

The quiet in the ghetto must mean something. But what?

The fact is that summer is over. And the nation made it through that most dangerous season of all without widespread racial warfare in its cities.

Only in the aftermath of Martin Luther King's murder did the cities explode this summer. There were other sporadic outbreaks, in Los Angeles and Cleveland, for instance.

But the dire predictions that America would burn this summer did not, thankfully, come true.

There must be a reason.

Teacher Strike Threat Increasing

NEW YORK—One of the latest fad phrases is "Teacher Power." It may have sounded somewhat amusing when it was introduced in teaching circles several months ago. Now, as the new term in public schools is upon us, it is beginning to sound ominous.

According to the two giant teachers unions, the National Education Association (NEA) and the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), we may have as many as 400 strikes in elementary and high schools in the 1968-1969 school year. This would be more than three times the record 126 walkouts in the year ended in June. Teachers accounted for 33 of the 142 strikes by local and state government employees tabulated by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics in 1966.

Teachers accounted for almost 40 strikes in the state of Michigan alone in the 1967-68 school year. The AFT, which is affiliated with the AFL-CIO, conducted several of the Michigan teacher strikes, including a two-week walkout in Detroit.

A 15-day strike of New York City teachers also in September was called by the United Federation of Teachers, the AFT's 50,000-member New York local. The UFT, disregarding New York State's no-strike law, kept the classrooms closed until Sept. 29, by which time it had won for the teachers a salary increase of $150 a year over Board of Education offers. The teachers also won a voice in board policymaking and a promise of more aid for slum schools.

The two teachers unions warn of "a strong possibility" of strikes at the opening in September of schools in East St. Louis, St. Louis, Philadelphia, New Orleans, and Wilmington, Del. The NEA estimated that 35 suburban area schools in Michigan, mainly near Detroit, face a strike threat.

So do isolated rural districts in Colorado, Oklahoma, Idaho, New Hampshire, and South Dakota.

"We anticipate there will be about 50 strikes when school starts, with another 300 to 350 spread throughout the rest of the school year," a NEA spokesman said.

Charles Cogen, as retiring president of the AFT, on Aug. 19 said: "While we must use every means at our disposal to win our objectives peacefully, we must not shrink from the use of the strike if necessary, regardless of the fines and jail sentences which may be leveled against us."

Strikes by public employees, including teachers, are almost universally prohibited by law, but the statutes are usually honored in the breach. Moreover, the technique of mass resignations of teachers proved effective in Florida last October.

The unionization of American teachers took off sharply in 1961, when the AFT United Federation of Teachers won collective bargaining rights for all New York City teachers. The AFT (165,000 members) and the NEA (1,100,000) in the past have been bitter rivals.

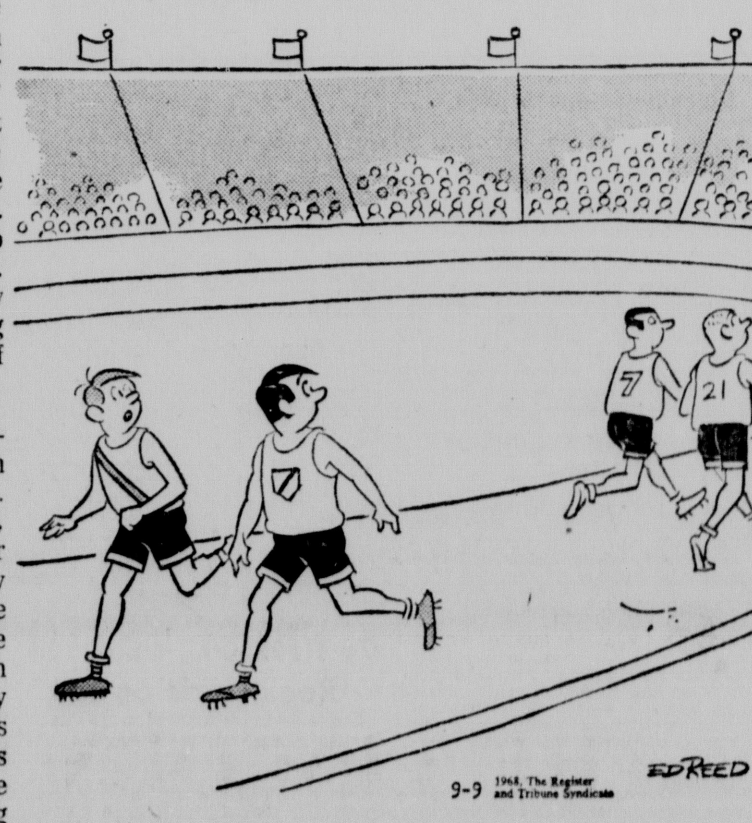

But in mid-August David Selden, who was elected to succeed Charles Cogen as AFT president, immediately set a new target: merger with the NEA within two years. Selden, who had helped negotiate the 1961 collective bargaining agreement in New York, raised for the first time the possibility that the AFT would leave the labor movement to merge with the NEA. Selden said on Aug. 22 that he sought "the establishment of a single, militant, unified teacher organization."

A crisis is brewing in New York City over decentralization of authority among 30 existing school boards and the three experimental school districts. Further difficulty in New York would shade the already dim teacher-public picture.

Survey: Law And Order Is Big, Emotional Issue

By LOUIS HARRIS

Next to ending the war in Vietnam, the most urgent demand of American voters in this election season is to bring back a sense of "law and order." By 81% to 14%, a heavy majority of the public believes "law and order has broken down in this country." And by 84% to 10%, Americans say they believe a "strong President can make a big difference" on this question.

Most Americans are inclined to take a hard-line approach to this new and emotional issue, which is coming to dominate popular attention. In the view of a majority of the public, this breakdown of legal authority can be traced to four main causes:

—A growth in influence of organized crime, singled out by 61% as a "major cause" for the breakdown.

—"Negroes who start riots," cited by 59% of the public as one of the main causes for the current crisis.

—"Communists," viewed as a major cause for the disruption of order by 56% of the public.

—The courts, named by a majority of 51% as the major reason for the decline of law and order. By three to one, the public agrees with the proposition that "violation of law and order has been encouraged by the courts."

LOUIS HARRIS
Hard-Line Approach

Reinforcing the intensity of feeling on the law-and-order issue is the frank admission on the part of 54% of the people that they "personally feel more uneasy on streets" than they did a year ago. Almost an identical number, 53%, report that "the fear of racial violence" makes them feel "personally uneasy on the streets."

The American people overwhelmingly agree, by 89% to 8%, to the oft-stated claim that "law and order would improve if more people backed up their local police." By contrast, the charge of "police brutality" is believed by only 13% of the public as a major cause of the breakdown of law and order. It should be pointed out, however, that results of this survey were obtained just before the outbreak of police action against demonstrators at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

The views of Negroes on "police brutality" stand in sharp contrast to those of the rest of the public: 52% of all black people see police provocation as a major cause of disorder. By 69% to 23%, the public as a whole goes along with the view that "until there is justice for minorities, there will not be law and order."

Local Problem

The public agrees, by 78% to 13%, with most students on the subject that "keeping law and order is much more a local than a federal government problem." In addition, by 73% to 16%, a majority also expresses awareness of the possibility that "the rights of many people can be endangered in the name of law and order." Nonetheless, the issue of law and order has caught hold nationally. Clearly, the disorder question will play a major role in the determination of the next President this November.

A carefully drawn cross section of 1,481 voters was asked Aug. 24:

"I want to ask you about some things which some people think have been causes of a breakdown of law and order in this country. For each, tell me if you feel it is a major cause of a breakdown of law and order, a minor cause or hardly a cause at all."

CAUSES OF LAW AND ORDER BREAKDOWN	Major Cause	Minor Cause	Hardly a Cause	Not Sure
Organized crime	61%	21%	6%	12%
Negroes who start riots	59%	26%	7%	8%
Communists	56%	26%	9%	9%
The courts	51%	25%	13%	10%
Anti-Vietnam demonstrators	38%	40%	13%	9%
National leadership	37%	30%	19%	14%
Hippies and student protesters	25%	43%	19%	9%
Right-wing demagogues	20%	33%	13%	34%
Police brutality	13%	33%	42%	10%

Before the Chicago outbreaks, hippies and student protesters, as well as anti-Vietnam demonstrators, were viewed as "minor" rather than "major" causes of disorder. Whether or not these forces of dissent have increased as causes of the breakdown of law and order will be reported in subsequent Harris Surveys.

Each voter interviewed was also asked this series of statements:

"Now I want to read you some statements about law and order in this country. For each, tell me if you tend to agree or disagree."

STATEMENTS ABOUT LAW AND ORDER	Agree	Disagree	Not Sure
Law and order would improve if more people backed up their local police.	87%	8%	5%
A strong President can make a big difference in directly preserving law and order.	84%	10%	6%
Law and order has broken down in this country.	81%	14%	5%
Keeping law and order is much more a local than a federal government problem.	78%	13%	9%
The rights of many people can be endangered in the name of law and order.	73%	16%	11%
Violation of law and order has been encouraged by the courts.	69%	23%	8%
Until there is justice for minorities, there will not be law and order.	63%	27%	10%
Demands for law and order are made by politicians who are against progress for Negroes.	22%	58%	20%

Ottawa (AP) — South Vietnam has approached the Canadian government with the idea of opening a consulate in this country, the Foreign Office reported. A spokesman said more than 150 South Vietnamese students are studying in Canada under the Colombo Plan, a Commonwealth aid organization.

POSTCARD by Stan Delaplaine

The villagers of Hanalei awoke this blue Hawaii morning to find people have progressive plans for them: a 54-unit condominium, smack on the beach where the palm trees lean into the trade wind and the winding river comes from the taro patch valley to the bay.

Hanalei is a sleepy, remote village at the end of the island of Kauai. There are two small Chinese general stores selling everything from fishing line to popsicles.

The old Mission church and the Mission house — the lumber came around the Horn, and they built it to remind themselves of faraway New England.

Jagged gray-green mountains rise behind the town. The great curve of blue bay is edged with golden sand.

The Hanalei people said: "Thanks, but we don't want a high-rise here."

But the lawyer for the builders said: "Everybody is happy to see progress. Don't penalize the man who has the investment."

Well, whassamatta you, brudda? TOO much pilikia in Paradise. Down at Kona on the Big Island, some other people want to build a high-rise condominium. Alongside historic Mokuaukaia Church and across from Hulihee Palace.

There are protests to this, too. But the lawyers said: "It would be unfair to stop this building. Can't you see the investors put MONEY into it?"

You think this is being done by get-rich-quick investors from the mainland?

The Hanalei job is a project of the Dillingham Corp. The land at Kona is owned by the Loren Thurstons. Both families are island business, civic projects and good works.

Hawaii is building. The announcement of a new hotel is hardly worth a line in the newspapers these pile-driving days. You have to build a chain.

A San Diego corporation will build fifteen new hotels.

A Colorado corporation bought the great Princeville ranch on Kauai.

Five new hotels are on planning boards for the island of Kauai.

The jumping place now is Kaaanapali Beach on Maui where Amfac (of the Big Five) is king.

The lush islands are trying to catch up with a tourist rush that grows faster than hotels can be built.

Charter jet tours—(about $350 gets you first-class jet transport and a week in all the islands)—fill hotels to bursting point.

A hotel owner told me: "I don't have any trouble getting $3.5 million from the bank to build. My problem is getting an architect and construction workers."

Another hotel man said: "I can't remember when I couldn't pay the meat bill. Now there isn't a week goes by I don't get a call from some New York corporation offering me $15 million for the place."

A Mainland hotel man announced he planned to build at Waikiki.

"Next day," he said, "two airlines phoned and wanted to contract for 65% of the rooms for the next ten years."

The big tourist boom fills the "Help Wanted" columns of the newspapers. Bartenders and cocktail waitresses. Supermarket help. Airline people. Gardeners. Bed makers. Help!

This hasn't meant that the people of Hawaii are getting rich. It is number seventeen among states in personal income.

Food costs 15 to 20% more than on the Mainland. Housing costs are about the same. (Which eats up the advantage of never having to heat your home and living in shorts, shirts and muumuus.) But there are plenty of jobs. And if you want to live modestly, you can do it in a marvelous climate. And yes, the hippies have discovered Hawaii. Auwe!

Sunday Wedding

At Tifereth Israel Synagogue in the late afternoon on Sunday, Sept. 8, the marriage of Miss Marilyn Breslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Breslow, to Dr. Laurence Michael Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Schneider of Cincinnati, Ohio, was solemnized by Rabbi Morton Waldman at a 5 o'clock ceremony.

The attendants, Miss Susan Katzman of Omaha, the maid of honor; bridesmaids Miss Joan Yaffe of Omaha, and Miss Judith Harris of Cincinnati, and Mrs. Charles L. Borner, Jr., of North Platte, the bridesmatron, appeared in alike floor-length frocks fashioned of Irish linen in monochromatic shades of navy blue, and designed with Eton collars and Gibson Girl sleeves. Seed pearl ornaments held in place their four tiered veils of blue illusion.

Edward I. Schneider served his son as best man, and the groomsmen and ushers included Leroy Breslow and John Breslow, brothers of the bride; Jerald Harris, Mark Moskowitz of Cincinnati; Arnold Breslow of Omaha, and Boyd Breslow of Tucson, Ariz.

The bride chose a gown of white peau de soie for her wedding. The long-sleeved Empire skimmer was designed with a slashed bateau neckline patterned with Guipure lace which was repeated in a front panel of the floor-length skirt, and also ornamented the wide wattle train which extended into cotillion length. Her bouffant veil was held to the head with a cluster of leaves embroidered with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and gypsophila.

After a honeymoon trip to Acapulco, Mexico, Dr. Schneider and his bride will reside at 1563 Dogwood, Fort Dix, N.J.

The bride is a graduate of Ohio State University. Doctor Schneider is a graduate of the College of Dentistry at Ohio State University and now is stationed with the U.S. Army at Fort Dix.

IN Suburbia

It's hard to believe that this morning marks the beginning of classes at the University of Nebraska, and the second week of school for grade, junior high and high school students. If you're finding it as hard as we are to get into an autumn mood, next Saturday should do the trick: the football game between the Huskers and Wyoming will probably convince even the most skeptical that summer had fled before the onrushing fall!

Next week we'll undoubtedly have quite a bit of news concerning guests who will be arriving for the game — but right at the moment we'd like to mention some out-of-state visitors who were in the Capital City last week.

The visitors, who will be heading home today, are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson and daughters, Edie and Stacey of Phoenix, Ariz. During their stay, the Andersons have been the houseguests of Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Waline; and they have also visited with Mr. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson; and Mrs. Anderson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Johnson of Cotner Terrace.

The population of Bishop Heights has diminished a bit recently as college-bound students leave for school. Bill Loerch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Loerch, spent last week in Manhattan, Kan. where he went through rush week at Kansas State University. Bill, who will be a sophomore in architecture, pledged Sigma Phi Epsilon. He returned to Lincoln for the weekend, and will be leaving again for Manhattan tomorrow.

A young lady who will be going away to school this year is Miss Nancy Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Daniels. We hear that Nancy, who will be a freshman, recently pledged Alpha Phi sorority at Kearney State College where she will be attending classes.

Residents of Hollingsworth Heights said good-bye to some neighbors last weekend as Mr. and Mrs. Ron Gibson and children, Mike, Chris and Nikki left their home at 2634 Austin Dr. for their new residence in Austin, Tex. Mr. Gibson will be working in Austin.

Church Ceremony On Sunday Evening Former Coed, Bride

For the wedding of Miss Ruth L. Walin of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Walin of Ceresco, and Raleigh L. Radenslaben, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Radenslaben, also of Ceresco, the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Ceresco was appointed with yellow and white gladioli and chrysanthemums. The 7:30 o'clock service was solemnized by the Rev. Phillip Lathrop, and Mrs. Leonard Palm played the wedding music. Allan Pearson was the vocal soloist.

Sleeveless, floor-length sheaths of green satin, were chosen for the attendants including Miss Rose Marie Pearson, the maid of honor; bridesmaid Miss Janeth Radenslaben, and bridesmatron, Mrs. Harlan Johnson. Their costumes were completed with long-sleeved cages of avocado green lace, and their crescent bouquets were fashioned of yellow pom-poms.

Bruce Palmer served as best man, and the groomsmen and ushers were Richard Radenslaben of Greenwood; Keith Samuelson, Roger Henrikson, both of Lincoln, and Roger Bouc of Wahoo.

The bride appeared in a gown of white satin and alencon lace. The long-sleeved Empire bodice was patterned with re-embroidered lace which was repeated on the A-line skirt and cathedral train. A white satin lace-covered pillbox held to the head her veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

After a honeymoon trip to the Black Hills, Mr. Radenslaben and his bride will reside at 1133 So. 32nd St., in Lincoln.

The bride is a former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University and now is a senior at the Bryan Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. Mr. Radenslaben attended the Nebraska Vocational Technical School at Milford, and is serving in the Army Reserves.

Early September Ceremonies Chosen

The wedding of Miss Linda Bowker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bowker of Scottsbluff, and Gordon K. Specht of Wilmington, Del., took place on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 1, at St. Andrews Church, Episcopal, in Scottsbluff. The 3 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Clyde E. Whitney.

A-line frocks of crepe, in the iris blue tone, were chosen for the attendants including Miss Cheryl Ruplinger of Aurora, Colo., the maid of honor; Miss Nancy Bowker, who was her sister's bridesmaid, and bridesmatrons Mrs. Michael Haver of Lincoln, and Mrs. Gary Martin.

Charles Specht of Chadron served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were George P. Bowker, Jr., of Long Beach, Calif.; Terry Witt of Syracuse, and Charles Hohnstein of Omaha.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace and satin. The lace fashioned the Empire bodice, with its sabrina neckline and elbow-length sleeves, and was repeated in applique on the floor-length satin skirt. Her tiered veil was held in place with a small crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of spider chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

The bride is a graduate of Nebraska Western College, and was on the secretarial staff of the Central Telephone and Utilities Corp., in Lincoln. Mr. Specht was graduated in June from the University of Nebraska College of Engineering and now is associated with Hercules Inc., in Wilmington.

The wedding of Miss Sharon Ann Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Green of Lincoln, and David K. Sutton, II, son of Dr. and Mrs. Keith D. Sutton of Loveland, Colo., took place at St. John's Church in Loveland on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 1. The Rev. Omer V. Foxhoven solemnized the 3 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Peggy Green of Lincoln, as her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Shari Sutton and Miss Sue Sutton, sisters of the bridegroom, were frocked alike in blue mystique wool mohair, touched with white lace ruching.

Bruce Sutton served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Gregory York of Lincoln; Robert Dreher of Denver, and Michael Coe of Fort Carson, Colo.

The bride chose a gown of white crepe for her wedding. Fashioned with long sleeves, and a high, rounded throat line, contoured with lace, the sculptured bodice was in the Empire mode, and the silhouette skirt was daytime length. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place with a crepe and lace pillbox, and she carried a cascade arrangement of yellow roses, white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Phoenix, Ariz., and Mexico, Mr. Sutton and his bride will reside in Denver, Colo., where the bridegroom is a senior in sociology at St. Regis College. The bride is a former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Phi Mu sorority.

At an 8 o'clock ceremony on Sunday evening, Sept. 1, the marriage of Miss Theora Irene Weddington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Weddington of Norfolk, to Charles William Noble of Chicago, Ill. son of Mrs. Leona Noble of Chicago, and George E. Noble of Miami, Fla., was solemnized at St. John's Lutheran Church.

Wearing floor-length skimmer frocks of ballet blue chiffon over crepe the attendants were Mrs. W. D. Nard, Jr., of Chicago, who was her sister's matron of honor; bridesmatron, Mrs. Tom Putnam of Vermillion, S.D., and bridesmaid Miss Catherine Wheeler of Plainfield, N.J.

Reg Noble of Kitchener, Ontario, Canada, served his brother as best man, and the groomsmen and ushers included James Souchnik, Wallace D. Nard, Jr., both of Chicago; Dale Weddington, Victor Lase, Jody Lase, David Weddington, all of Gilroy, Calif.; Wilfred Weddington of Pender, and A. A. Parmenter.

The gown chosen by the bride was fashioned of ivory silk organza and Alencon lace designed in the princess mode. Patterned with lace encrusted with seed pearls and sequins, the bodice was designed with a wedding ring neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Appliques of the jeweled lace dotted the floor-length skirt which was completed with a chapel train. Her full length mantilla, heavily bordered with the lace was attached to a lace toque, and she carried a cluster of orchids.

The bride is a former student at Nebraska Wesleyan University where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, and was graduated from the University of Kansas. Mr. Noble was graduated from Kirkland Lake Vocational Institute at Kirkland Lake, and played professional hockey. He also attended the University of Miami.

Evening Service

The marriage of Miss Linda Rae Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morris of Harlan, Iowa, to Charles Albright of Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jensen of Grand Island, took place on Sunday evening, Sept. 8, at the Shelby Methodist Church in Shelby, Iowa. The Rev. Ralph Russell read the lines of the 7:30 o'clock service, and Miss Sylvia Ploen played the wedding music. Miss Kathy Kern was the vocal soloist.

Mrs. Richard Goshorn, the matron of honor; Mrs. Robert Guild of Ames, Iowa, the bridesmatron, and Miss Lynne Albright of Grand Island, the bridesmaid, wore alike long-skirted frocks of kaarate in the apricot and peach tones. Each carried a cascade bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and pom-poms in the apricot tone.

Gary Craig of St. Paul, served as best man, and the ushers were David Steinbeck of Grand Island, and Daniel Leader of Hartington.

Silk organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace fashioned the gown chosen by the bride. Designed with a portrait neckline and continental sleeves, the sculptured bodice was patterned with an overlay of the lace which was repeated on the floorlength A-line skirt. Her four-tiered veil of illusion was fingertip length and was held to the head with a petal cluster of sequins and pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses.

After Sept. 15, Mr. Albright and his bride will reside at 5801 Huntington.

The bride is a graduate of

Handweavers

The Lincoln Handweavers Guild will go on an excursion to Rising City Tuesday, Sept. 10 for a luncheon and meeting at the Philip Glock residence. Members will meet at the Greyhound bus terminal at 11:30 to board a chartered bus for Rising City. The program will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Glock.

Women Golfers Celebrate End Of Season

It was a cheerful farewell that the feminine golfers at the Lincoln Country Club gave to the departing season last Friday evening. There was a party with the fascinating title of "stagette" and it was a costume affair. The festivities followed an afternoon of golf — with time out for changing of golf attire to the costumes. Of course there was a dinner, and of course there was the awarding of prizes for the nine-hole champion, and the 18-hole winner for the season.

Mrs. Joe R. Seacrest walked off with the nine-hole honors, and receiving the 18-hole award was Miss Betty Heckman.

In the picture we find a sixsome — all in costume but the two winners —

Afternoon Wedding

The marriage of Miss Anita Gayle Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale E. Dawson, to Sgt. Frank D. Brown, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton D. Brown, took place on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 8, at the First United Methodist Church. The 4 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. C. Ebb Munden before a background of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Adelaide Spurgin played the wedding music. The soloists were Miss Sandra Garbeling, violinist, and Mrs. Marjorie Matson Smith, vocalist.

Mrs. Robert Soffin, the matron of honor, and Miss Kathy Mueller of Minneapolis, Kan., the bridesmaid, wore alike floor-length frocks of deep gold crepe designed in the Empire mode. Each carried a nosegay of yellow and white chrysanthemums, frilled with yellow net.

Leon Frerking served as best man, and seating the guests were Robert Soffin and Charles Dorsey.

The bride appeared in a gown of imported white silk organza designed in the Empire mode. Re-embroidered Alencon lace patterned with seed pearls, formed an overlay for the long-sleeved bodice and the lace, which was repeated in an applique motif on the A-line skirt, also ornamented the detachable, chapel train. Her bouffant veil was shoulder length and was held to the head with a double crown of seed pearls and crystals, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Following a honeymoon trip Sgt. Brown and his bride will reside in Susan, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed at Travis Air Force Base.

Bridal Courtesies

The approaching marriage of Miss Pamela Sue Kindsvater to Leslie Boyd Hubert which takes place on Sept. 27, has prompted a flurry of courtesies for the bride-elect.

On Friday, Aug. 30, Mrs. Pauline Niederhaus and Mrs. Charles Bolus, Sr., aunts of the bride, were hostesses for a shower of approximately 25 guests at the Union Savings and Loan Building, 56th and O.

Another aunt, of Miss Kindsvater, Mrs. Frank Stahly and her daughters

Sara Jane and Lisa of Milford, was hostess for a shower at their home on Sunday, Sept. 8.

Miss Connie Hubert, Mr. Hubert's sister, and Miss Lynne Grasz, a cousin of Mr. Hubert, will give a shower for Miss Kindsvater on Friday, Sept. 13 at Miss Hubert's home.

ABBY: speak up

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my mother-in-law. I have been married for 42 years and have never said a cross word to her, but I am at the end of my rope. She lives in another town thank God, but she uses up all her old age pension just traveling around visiting the relatives. When she comes here she insists on sleeping on our sofa where she can hear and see everything. And she snores so loud we can't hear the TV. We have a spare room but she won't use it.

She complains about my cooking, my coffee, our children, grandchildren and friends. She puts her false teeth in my best china cups and when she leaves I have to throw the cup out. She won't go to church so one of us has to stay home and keep her company. We never know when she's coming. She'll get on a bus and travel 600 miles and call us from the bus depot to come and get her. Isn't that a lot of nerve? If we have plans, it's just too bad. Everyone has to change their schedules to suit her. I would rather be dead than have her again. What should I do?

PROVOKED
DEAR PROVOKED: After playing the shrinking violet for 42 years, it may be difficult to become a tiger lily, but try. Tell the crusty old lady where you want her to sleep, where to put her false teeth, and if she doesn't care to go to church, she can sit alone. Also let her know that unless you have some advance notice, you may not be home.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "NOT SURE AND SCARED TO DEATH": "Tell your parents immediately. No matter what you think, they will not "kill" you. In time of trouble your parents are your best friends. PLEASE believe me. They will help you!

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Opening lead — jack of hearts.

The United States met Italy in the 25th session of the qualifying rounds, at which point the Italians were leading the field with 380 victory points, while the Americans were third (6 points behind Australia) with 354 victory points.

When the session was over, the U.S. was still third, but they had clobbered the Italians in a surprising, one-sided defeat by a score of 19 victory points to 1.

The huge Bridge-O-Rama audience sat thoroughly astonished and unbelieving as Robinson, Jordan, Kay and Kaplan, playing against Forquet, Garozzo, Belladonna and Avarelli, ran up a score of 46 international match points to 0 during the first 10 hands of the 20-board match.

Nothing like this had ever happened before in the long and distinguished history of the Blue Team which, since 1957, has dominated the world of bridge. True, the Italians fought back as usual and scored 20 to 0 in the next ten boards, but the U.S. had a fine 46-20 victory to show for their efforts.

Both teams bid seven spades on today's hand from that match, and both declarers (Robinson and Avarelli) went down one after winning the heart lead and cashing the A-K of spades. East was bound to win the setting trick with the jack of spades, since South could not shorten himself sufficiently in trumps to coup East's J-7.

Actually, the grand slam can be made by anticipating a 4-1 trump break and preparing early for the trump coup. Declarer wins the ace of hearts, cashes the ace of clubs and K-A of spades, and ruffs a club. He then leads the queen of diamonds.

Whether West covers does not matter. Assume he does. Dummy wins with the ace and plays the K-Q-10 of clubs. East cannot afford to ruff any of them and declarer discards the 3-5-J of diamonds. He then ruffs a diamond and returns to dummy with a heart. East's J-7 of trumps automatically succumb on the next lead from dummy.

A 'Happy Birthday' For Mrs. Paul Cook

It was an extremely happy 80th birthday for Mrs. Paul E. Cook when she celebrated the anniversary on Aug. 31. Her sons, her daughters, her brothers and her sisters were all on hand to sing the 'happy birthday' song at a party given at the Gay Nineties restaurant.

The celebrants came from Massachusetts, from Illinois, from Denver, from Iowa, and of course from Lincoln and other Nebraska points.

There was one member of the family missing — Mrs. Cook's sister, the late Mrs. B. O. Perkins of David City.

Mrs. Cook has resided in Lincoln for many, many years and has many friends here, but the party was strictly a family affair.

coln, a cousin; Miss Martha Thege of Lincoln, Mrs. Cook's sister; Mrs. Helen Cook of Grinnell, Iowa, a sister-in-law; Adolph Thege of Wahoo, Paul E. Cook, Jr., of Denver, a son; George J. Thege of Linwood, a brother; Mrs. Amelia Vranda of Lincoln, a sister; Mrs. Kenneth Nye of Glenview, Ill., and Mrs. Marian Brown of North Platte, both daughters.

Cream For Beauty

Cherish the youthful smoothness of your complexion by massaging the skin at bedtime with rich vitalizing night cream. Apply Olay vitalizing night cream to the cheeks, forehead and throat, sweep it into the skin with light, upward molding strokes and pat a little more round your eyes with feathery, fingertip movements. The isotonic qualities of this vitalizing cream will help to smooth away surface skin dryness and tiny lines while beautifying the soft, supple qualities of your complexion.

During this Limited Enrollment Period, you can enroll yourself and all eligible members of your family simply by mailing the Enrollment Form below with $1. There's nothing else to do—but you must mail your Enrollment no later than Midnight, October 13, 1968!

Think of it. Now, with a stroke of your pen, you can have tax-free, expense-free extra cash paid direct to you when a sudden accident or unexpected illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family! And you may enroll during this Limited Enrollment Period without having to see a company representative and without any red tape whatsoever. All you need do is mail the Enrollment Form below together with just $1 before the expiration date. It's that easy!

Why You Need Extra Cash In Addition To Ordinary Hospital Insurance

Anyone who has been in the hospital recently knows ordinary hospital insurance—even Medicare—simply will not cover everything. You have to pay many "extras" out of your own pocket—and it can add up to hundreds of dollars in a frighteningly short time.

But even if your ordinary hospital insurance covers most of your medical and hospital bills, what about the bills that keep piling up at home?

If you, as husband, father and breadwinner are suddenly hospitalized, your income stops, your expenses go up. Even if you have some kind of "salary insurance" it probably won't come close to replacing your full-time pay.

If your wife is suddenly hospitalized, who will look after the family, do the laundry, the marketing, the cleaning? You may have to take time off from your job—or hire full-time domestic help—to take care of things at home.

If one of your children is suddenly hospitalized you will certainly spare no expense. You wouldn't even think of the cost.

If you're over 65 and are suddenly hospitalized, Medicare, fine as it is, won't pay all of your hospital expenses or any household expenses. Most senior citizens won't want to use savings it may have taken a lifetime to accumulate... they want to retain their independence and not become a "burden" to their children or community.

Without "extra cash" protection, a hospital emergency may leave you with savings gone, debts you can't pay, peace of mind shattered—even your recovery can be seriously delayed by money worries!

How The Plan Protects You And Your Family

Now, with the unique "extra cash" protection of The Doctors Hospital Plan you can avoid these worries because you can be assured of extra cash income when you or any covered member of your family goes to the hospital. No matter how large your family, no matter what your age or occupation and without any qualifications whatsoever, you can choose any of the four low-cost plans shown at right to meet your family's special needs.

In addition to the "extra cash" hospital benefits, you get all these valuable "extra" features:

Your "Health-Bank Account" Grows Each Month

Here's a wonderful benefit, no matter which plan you choose—almost like having an extra "Bank Account." When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account."

Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum! When you have claims, your benefits are subtracted from your "account." It's much like putting money in and taking it out of a bank account.

Enjoy Life-Long Security

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

You May Actually Come Out "Money Ahead"

Because The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any other company's health insurance you carry—individual, group or even Medicare—and because all your extra cash benefits are tax-free, you may leave the hospital many dollars ahead... money you don't have to account for to anyone. Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

Enroll For Only $1

Regardless of your age, the size of your family, or the plan you select, you get your first month for only $1.00. If you choose the All-Family Plan—all your eligible children (including future additions) are included at no extra cost. (See box at right for low rates.)

Extra Cash Protection At Surprisingly Low Cost

How can a hospital plan offer so much for so little? The answer is simple: We have lower total sales costs. The Doctors Hospital Plan is a mass enrollment plan. All business is conducted between you and the company by mail. No salesmen or investigators are used. It all adds up to real savings we share with you by giving you high quality protection at low cost.

Offered By Physicians Mutual "The Doctors Company"

Your policy is backed by the resources, integrity and reputation of the Physicians Mutual Insurance Company, "the doctors company," specializing in health and accident protection for physicians, surgeons and dentists for more than 65 years. Dunne's Insurance Reports, one of the leading insurance industry authorities in the nation, gives Physicians Mutual its highest policyholders' rating of "A Plus (Excellent)." Serving hundreds of thousands of policyholders throughout the United States direct by mail, Physicians Mutual has its headquarters in Omaha, Nebraska, and is licensed and incorporated in that

CHOOSE THE PLAN THAT SUITS YOU BEST

ALL-FAMILY PLAN $10,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized. $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.

If yours is a young, growing family, we recommend the All-Family Plan. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. And all your children (including future additions) between 3 months of age and under 21 are included at no extra cost as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

You pay only $7.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN $7,500 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) when your wife is hospitalized.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the Husband-Wife Plan.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN $7,500 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized. $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each eligible child hospitalized.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the One-Parent Family Plan. This plan has been tailored to help meet your particular needs. It covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the One-Parent Family Plan.

You pay only $5.95 a month and you get your first month for only $1.00!

INDIVIDUAL PLAN $5,000 MAXIMUM

PAYS YOU: $100 weekly ($14.28 daily) extra cash when you are hospitalized.

If you are living by yourself, or if you wish to cover only yourself or one family member, choose the Individual Plan.

You pay only $3.50 monthly and you get your first month for only $1.00!

On all plans, your "extra cash" benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, right up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

Naturally, The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover any new accident or sickness. Accidents are covered immediately. After your policy is 30 days old, you are covered for sicknesses which begin thereafter. There are only these minimum necessary exceptions:

pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the All-Family Plan which covers maternity after the policy is in force for 10 months), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or conditions covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

You are free to go to any hospital of your own choice that makes a charge for room and board, with these exceptions only: nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals or Federal hospitals.

your policy you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. When you need your benefits, you can be sure that your claim will be handled promptly.

Protect Your Family—Enroll Now.

If Not Satisfied Your $1 Will Be Refunded

Take a moment right now to fill out your Enrollment Form and mail it with only $1.00 for your first month.

When you receive your policy, you'll see that it is honest and easy to understand. But if for any rea-state. Its Board of Directors is composed entirely of respected members of the medical, dental and insurance professions.

Easy To Enroll! No Salesman Will Call!

During this limited enrollment period there are no other qualifications other than to complete and mail the Enrollment Form below. We will issue your Doctors Hospital Policy (Form P308 Series) immediately—the same day we receive your form. This automatically puts your policy in force. Along with

SPECIAL EXTRA BENEFITS!

Whichever plan you choose, you get:

50% INCREASE IN YOUR CASH BENEFITS...if you or any member of your family is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

If you choose the All-Family Plan or the Husband-Wife Plan, you get in addition:

DOUBLE CASH BENEFITS if both you and your wife are injured and hospitalized at the same time: You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

Important: Here is another real "plus"—if you have been told that anyone in your family is "uninsurable!" Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past—ailments that come back again and again, or are likely to recur—you will be covered for these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for two years!

IF YOU ARE OVER 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses it will not cover all of your needs. During this limited enrollment, you can get the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years without any qualifications just by using the form below!

It's a fact that people over 65 go to hospitals more often and have larger hospital bills. That's exactly why they need extra cash protection! And that's why some hospital plans won't accept them or charge rates beyond their means. But The Doctors Hospital Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you easy-to-carry protection that is within your means. If you are over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following modest monthly increase applies. (This is the only increase that can ever be made as long as your policy is in force):

Female on All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan .....$2.25
Female on One-Parent Family or Individual Plan ..... 3.00
Male on any Plan ..... 3.00

son whatsoever you change your mind you may return your policy within 10 days and we will promptly refund your dollar.

IMPORTANT: We can only accept your enrollment if it is postmarked on or before the date shown below. But please don't wait until the last moment. The sooner we receive your form, the sooner The Doctors Hospital Plan will cover you. You risk nothing by acting promptly. You may lose hundreds of dollars in "extra cash" benefits through needless delays. Mail your enrollment form today!

19 Important Questions Answered ABOUT THE NEW DOCTORS HOSPITAL PLAN

1. What Is The Doctors Hospital Plan?

The Doctors Hospital Plan is a brand-new, low-cost health protection plan—that pays extra cash direct to you when a covered accident or illness hospitalizes you or a covered member of your family.

2. Why do I need The Doctors Hospital Plan in addition to my regular insurance?

Probably your present hospital insurance won't cover all your hospital expenses, but even if it does, you will still need help to cover all your household expenses when you are hospitalized.

3. Can I collect even if I carry other health insurance?

Yes. The Doctors Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry, whether individual or group—even in addition to Medicare! And all your benefits are tax-free! Of course, you may have only one like policy with Physicians Mutual.

4. Is there a lot of red tape to qualify?

None at all. Your only qualification is to complete and mail your Enrollment Form by the deadline date shown.

5. Which plan should I choose?

You may choose any of four low-cost plans—you can actually select the exact plan that suits you best!

If yours is a young, growing family, we recommend the ALL-FAMILY PLAN. You and your wife are covered at once for accidents, for new sicknesses after 30 days, and for maternity benefits after 10 months. All your children (and future additions) between 3 months and under 21 are included, at no extra cost, as long as they are unmarried and live at home.

If you are the only parent living with your children, we suggest the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN. This covers you and all unmarried children living at home between 3 months of age and under 21. Under this plan, of course, future additions are not included since no maternity benefit is provided in the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN.

If you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN.

Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the INDIVIDUAL PLAN.

6. If I become hospitalized, when do my benefits begin?

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long—and for as many times—as you are hospitalized, up to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you choose.

7. How much can I be paid?

Each plan has its own "Aggregate of Benefits," what we call the maximum.

For example, under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $10,000—$100 a week ($14.28 a day) extra cash income for you; $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you; $50 weekly ($7.14 daily) for each of your eligible children.

Under the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, the maximum is $7,500—$100 weekly ($14.28 daily) for you; $75 weekly ($10.71 daily) for your wife.

Under the INDIVIDUAL PLAN, the maximum is $5,000—$100 a week ($14.28 a day) for you.

8. Are any additional benefits included in The Doctors Hospital Plan?

Yes. You receive a 50% increase in cash benefits if you or any covered family member is hospitalized for cancer (including Leukemia and Hodgkin's Disease), heart attack (acute myocardial infarction, coronary thrombosis and coronary occlusion), or stroke (apoplexy).

9. What are the "double" cash benefits?

If you and your wife are both injured and hospitalized at the same time and are covered by the ALL-FAMILY PLAN or the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN, you get double cash benefits. You get twice the amount—$350 A WEEK!

10. Does this plan pay in any hospital?

You will be covered in any hospital that makes a charge for room and board, except nursing homes, convalescent or self-care units of hospitals or Federal hospitals.

11. When does my policy go into force?

It becomes effective the very same day we receive your Enrollment Form. Accidents are covered on that date. After your policy is 30 days old, sicknesses which begin thereafter are covered. Under the ALL-FAMILY PLAN, childbirth or pregnancy or any consequence thereof is covered after your policy is in force for 10 months.

12. What if someone in my family has had a health problem that may occur again?

Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past, pre-existing conditions are covered after the policy has been in force for two years.

13. What conditions aren't covered?

Only these minimum necessary exceptions: pregnancy or any consequence thereof (unless you have the ALL-

FAMILY PLAN), war, military service, mental disorder, alcoholism or drug addiction, or if something happens "on the job" and is covered by Workmen's Compensation or Employers Liability Laws.

14. Can I drop out any time? Can you drop me?

We will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—for as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums. We guarantee that we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy unless we decline renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid. You, of course, can drop your policy on any renewal date.

15. Why Is The Doctors Hospital Plan almost like having an extra "bank account"?

When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—depending upon the plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account." Then, every month your policy is in force, a sum equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximum. When you have claims, benefits are subtracted from your "account!"

16. Will my claims be handled promptly?

Yes. With your policy, you will receive a simple, easy-to-use Claim Form. Your claims will be processed quickly, and your checks sent directly to you.

17. Why are the premiums so low?

With The Doctors Hospital Plan, you actually get all these benefits—at such a low cost—because this is a mass enrollment plan—and no salesmen are used. Our volume is higher and our total sales costs are lower.

18. How much does my first month cost?

Only $1.00, regardless of your age, the size of your family or the plan you select. After the first month, if you are under 65, you pay only these low monthly rates: only $7.95 a month for the ALL-FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the ONE-PARENT FAMILY PLAN; only $5.95 a month for the HUSBAND-WIFE PLAN; only $3.50 a month for THE INDIVIDUAL PLAN. (When you are over 65, premiums increase. See modest increase in box above.)

19. Why should I enroll right now?

Because an unexpected sickness or accident could strike without warning—and you will not be covered until your policy is in force. Remember, if for any reason you change your mind, you may return your policy within 10 days and your $1.00 will be refunded immediately.

K-Staters Eye Indiana, Oklahoma Success Stories

(Seventh of a Series)
By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Manhattan, Kan. — Two items tacked on a bulletin board in the Kansas State dressing room by football coach Vince Gibson are last year's predictions for the big Eight and Big 10 from a national pre-season football magazine.

They show Indiana picked 10th in the Big 10 and Oklahoma tabbed for fifth in the Big Eight. Both won championships. "I put them up to show our kids what can happen in this game of football," Gibson explained as touring Big Eight Skywriters stopped here.

"I don't know how we're gonna do," Gibson says with his slow Southern drawl. "Because we have so many sophomores and junior college transfers we're counting on and you never know how they're gonna do."

"But I do know this is a tough league and it's going to be a lot tougher than it was last year. I think I can say this because I came from the Southeastern Conference. I think the Big Eight is going to be the toughest conference in the country this year."

Gibson gave two basic reasons for his feelings. "This is a tough conference because we can get great Negro athletes and because we can get the average student in school where he can't in some places."

Admitting that he might not yet be ready to match personnel week after week with most Big Eight foes, Gibson says his goal here is to "have a team where I know I have as good personnel as that team we're playing."

"It's frustrating to walk out on the field knowing that you don't have a prayer. This year we're gonna have to be luckier than all get out to win with sophomores, but no one in the conference has got better backs."

"We've got two 9.3 sprinters (Mack Herron and Charlie Collins). Mack Herron can be a great football player and Larry Brown (tailback) can be a good one. Dave Jones (flanker) is a great receiver."

"We are a lot quicker

Brown On Tour With Skywriters

defensively and we have six starters back, but we're not sure they're gonna start. We are thin in the defensive secondary and the offensive line."

"For the first time, I think we've got a chance to win if we can improve. In six of our games last year, we were in the game going into the fourth quarter and I think we'll be in half of them going into the fourth quarter this year."

"But I didn't come to Kansas State to be 5-5 or 6-4. What I came here to do is to win the Big Eight."

Gibson admits this goal isn't in this year's future, but he reminds you that, "year after next, watch out."

"The answer to winning isn't coaching. The answer is selling. Oklahoma State had the finest coached football team I have seen last year, but they didn't win."

"To win, you've got to recruit and you've got to have something to sell. With our new stadium and our new athletic dorm, we've got something to sell."

"We've got players here now that everybody in the country wanted. We sold them on the idea that if they could make a winner at Kansas State, they'd be a legend and be remembered 20 years from now."

Looking at the Big Eight picture, Gibson says, "The team that stands out is Oklahoma. They have to be the team to beat."

"Another team that has great athletes is Missouri. They just overpower you."

"And Nebraska has as much ability as anybody in the conference, but you don't know how (quarterback Frank) Patrick is going to do."

Lynn Larson, a 6-4, 233-pound junior college transfer, is at left tackle, leaving only Dave Jones at flanker as a veteran in the offensive line.

The backfield is more experienced with two-time starters Bill Nossek at quarterback and Cornelius Davis at fullback. Larry Brown returns at tailback

Up front on defense, there's letterman in Ken Eckardt at right tackle and Greg Marn at monster, but the rest of the starters are new.

BAHNSEN WINS NO. 15

Yankees Club Senators, 7-2

... STAN HURLS 4-HITTER

By Associated Press

Stan Bahnsen won his 15th game with a four-hitter as the New York Yankees clipped Washington, 7-2, and the Baltimore Orioles kept their faint pennant hopes alive by trimming the Chicago White Sox, 3-2, while the American League-leading Detroit Tigers lost to Minnesota, 3-1.

The Yankees jumped in front in the third inning, scoring three runs after two were out. Roy White walked and scored when Joe Pepitone tripled. Then consecutive doubles by Tom Tresh and Bill Robinson added two more runs.

In the fifth Mickey Mantle walked and went to third on White's double. Pepitone's sacrifice fly scored one run and Bernie Allen's error on Tresh's bouncer allowed another to score.

Bobby Cox' walk and singles by Jake Gibbs, Mantle and White helped the Yankees to two wrap-up runs in the sixth.

Washington's only runs off Bahnsen, a former Husker, came on rookie Gene Martin's pinch homer in the sixth and Mike Epstein's ninth inning homer.

Baltimore lefthander Dave McNally pitched the Chicago White Sox on four hits to notch his 20th victory and run his winning streak to 12.

The Orioles, who rapped White Sox starter Jack Fisher, 7-10, for three runs in the first inning, moved to within seven games of American League leading Detroit.

The 25-year-old McNally, unbeaten since losing No. 8 on July 5, became the second Oriole pitcher to win 20 decisions since Baltimore returned to the major leagues in 1954. The other was Steve Barber in 1963.

Rookie Craig Nettles slammed his fourth home run in three days, a three-run shot in the sixth inning that gave Dean Chance and the Minnesota Twins their 3-1 victory over Detroit.

Chance checked the Tigers on six hits and struck out seven in squaring his record at 14-14.

Nettles, recalled by the Twins from Denver of the Pacific Coast League Sept. 1, slammed one of loser Earl Wilson's pitches into the facing of the second deck in right field. The blow followed singles by Cesar Tovar and Frank Kustro.

The 24-year-old rookie hit his first major league homer off 28-game winner Denny McLain Friday night. He slammed two off Pat Dobson as the Twins beat Detroit 2-1 Saturday night.

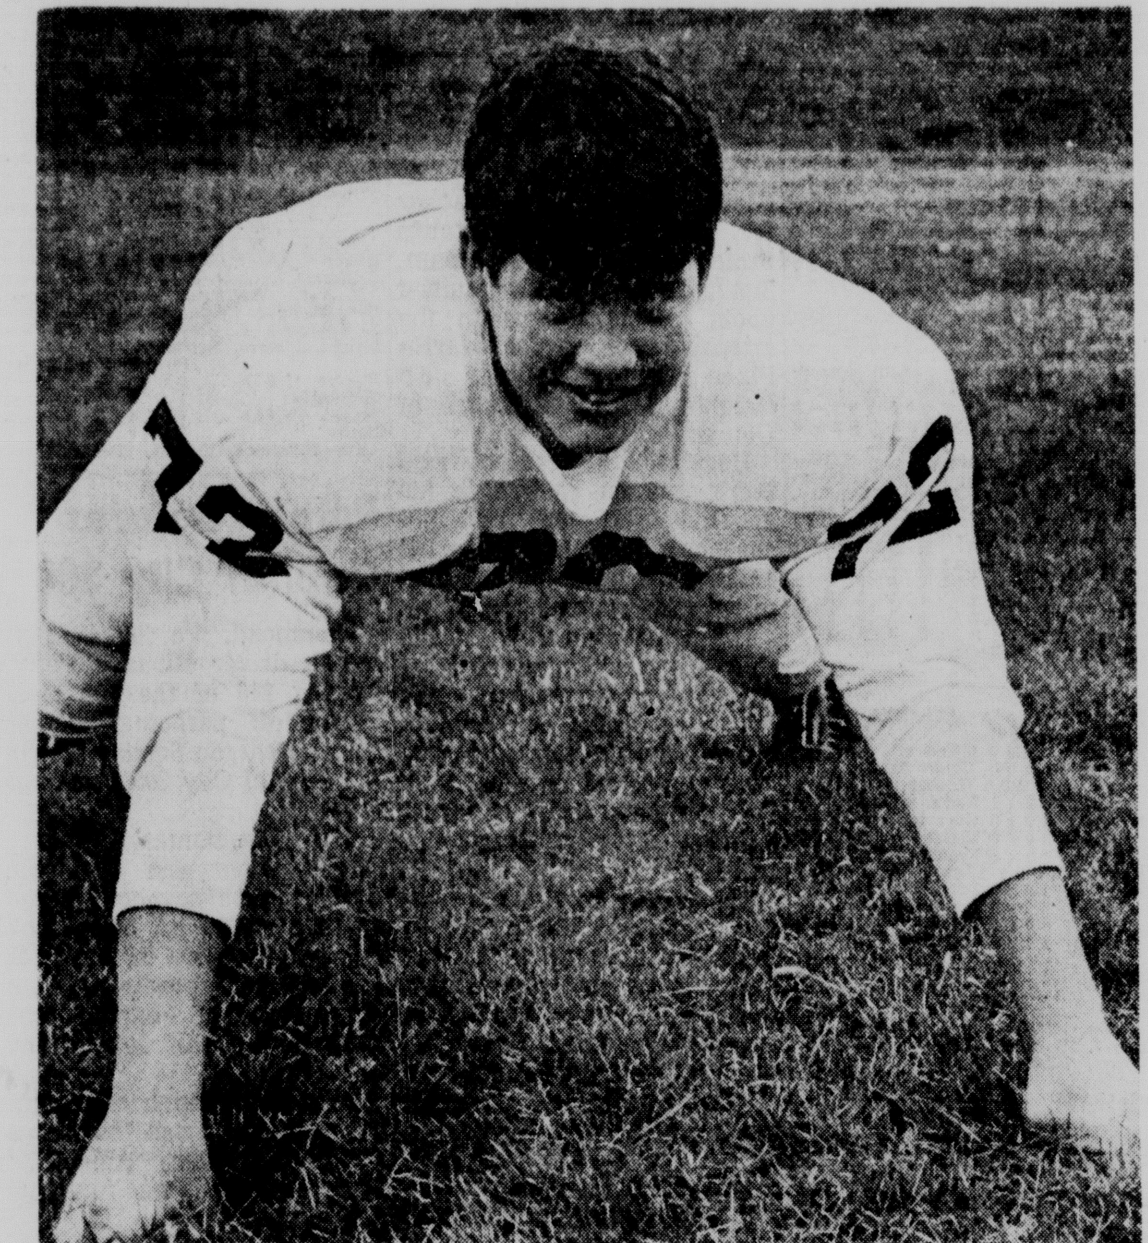

Detroit took a 1-0 lead in the fifth when Gates Brown, making a rare starting appearance, belted his fifth homer.

The loss was Wilson's 12th in 24 decisions.

Oakland blasted Cleveland, 10-2, and California trimmed Boston, 3-2, in the only other American League games.

In the National League Phil Gagliano laced a run-scoring pinch hit single in the 11th inning, giving the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-2 victory over San Francisco that ended their losing streak at four games.

Atlanta defeated Houston, 4-1. Los Angeles trimmed Cincinnati, 3-2. Chicago belted Philadelphia, 10-3, and Pittsburgh tripped the New York Mets, 3-0, in other National League games.

Operation Bounce-Back Developing At Pius X

... TOUGH COMPETITION

By VIRGIL PARKER
Prep Sports Writer

Operation Bounce-Back is in full swing on the football practice field at Lincoln's Pius X High School.

After a sixth place rating in the state in 1965, and a ranking as the second-best team in Nebraska in 1966 following a 7-0-2 season, the Thunderbolts dropped their first six games in a row last year.

Veteran coach Vince Aldrich, starting his 20th campaign at the helm, saw the Pius gridders come back to take the final three games in '67.

"We hope we can keep that momentum going at the outset this year," Aldrich remarked while assessing his prospects for the coming gridiron wars. "We're making good progress in the early season drills. Our offense is looking sharper each day."

Aldrich is also pleased with the coaching aid he's receiving. "It's the most organized pre-season practice we've ever had," he said. "Because of this we've been able to keep our varsity and JV squads together and working as one big unit. It's brought everyone along a little faster."

Helping Aldrich oversee the 55-man squad is John Rotter, who is working with the backs and newcomer Don Kelley, who will be taking over the head basketball chores this winter.

Mike Bohaty, unable to finish his Husker eligibility after a spring scrimmage injury a year ago, has also been on hand to help.

"We're seldom deep enough with experienced players to platoon much, but we have some real battles going on for starting positions. Those who get edged out will certainly be utilized somewhere," Aldrich observed.

A case in point is the quarterback spot. Gary Walker and Jack Flaherty are vying for the job. "But you can bet the one who doesn't start there will be in the lineup somewhere else," Aldrich added.

"If we have a real weak link right now," Aldrich admitted, "it's at guard. We're really counting on Dennis Butler to anchor down the middle, but he's injured and may even miss a game or two."

John Louden and John Neal are after one spot, with Mike Kafka, Mark Drozda and Bob Jarrett battling for Butler's place.

Pat Neal has the edge over Paul Hamersky at center, though Aldrich plans to have both of them on defense.

Mike Schrepf is slated to start at one tackle, with Jim Watson trying to hold off Gene Carroll and Bob Hadwick on the other side. "The keen competition has helped a lot," Aldrich said. "It's made all the boys play right up to their potential at all times."

Brad Schmidt and Reidell Lintz are after the split end assignment, while Don Miller and Mike Barry are neck and neck in the race at tight end.

"We've got two Pat Fisher's in the backfield," Aldrich observed, "and though they spell their name differently, we've starting calling one of them Cletus."

Cletus "Dennis-A" Fischer is fighting Dennis Shibata at left half, while Pat Fisher and Ross Jensen are after the fullback spot where Mike O'Neill holds the edge.

Dave Smith, who figures to be the opening right half, completes the starting eleven.

The Thunderbolts open at Beatrice Sept. 13, continue on the road against Omaha Bishop Ryan the next week. Except for Fremont, Oct. 11, all the other games will be played in Lincoln.

Only the two against Boys Town and Sioux City Heelen will be at the Pius X home field, the others at Seacrest.

BRUNZELL ... putts during match against Jennings.

Larry Romjue Ousts Gloe In Match Play Golf Meet

... DEFENDING CHAMP SPANGLER ADVANCES

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Larry Romjue, after missing short putts on two straight holes that would have ended the match, sank a two-footer for a par on the second extra hole of a sudden-death playoff to defeat Lance Gloe, last year's runner-up, in the Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star Match Play Golf Classic Sunday.

Romjue, who was eliminated last year by champion Dick Spangler Jr. on the fourth extra hole of their quarterfinal match, thus joins seven others for next Sunday's quarterfinals at the Hillcrest Country Club.

Spangler moved into the quarterfinals with a 5 and 4 victory over Em Wicks Sunday. The Lincoln attorney, who limits his golf to weekends, was one-under-par when his match with Wicks ended.

After making the turn at two-over-par and owning a 2-up margin, Spangler went 3-up with a par at the 10th, then birdied three of the next four holes for the victory.

He went 4-up with a four-foot birdie putt at the 11th, lost the 12th when Wicks sank a 15-footer for a birdie-2, then with a twelve footer at the 13th and a 25-footer at the 14th, both for birdies.

"It started to rain at the 12th," Wicks joked, "and I asked him, 'Why don't you birdie the next two holes and get this over with.'"

"And he did it."

Romjue was four down to Gloe after 11 holes in their match, but won the 12th, 13th and 14th with pars when Gloe ran into putting trouble.

He knotted the match with a birdie at the 15th and went ahead for the first time with a par at the 16th. He had a chance to win by halving the 18th hole, but a five-footer for his birdie to tie Gloe hit the cup and stayed out.

On the first extra hole, he needed only to sink a six-footer to win, but it missed, also.

Romjue won on the second extra hole when Gloe missed the green on the 443-yard, par-4 hole that played into a stiff wind and took a bogey.

Romjue is becoming a veteran of extra hole matches, having defeated Mike Ley on the second extra hole a year ago to win the Lincoln Public Links title, losing to Don Bridge of Norfolk on the second extra hole in the Nebraska State Match Play Tournament at Norfolk this summer and losing to Spangler last year in the Sunday Journal and Star Match Play Classic.

His victory Sunday moves him into the quarterfinals against Roy Wythers, who carded a 73, in defeating John McCune, 3 and 2.

His brother, Milt, also won Sunday, scoring a 1-up verdict over Mike Ley. Milt will meet Scott Brunzell, a 3 and 2 winner over Bill Jennings, in the quarterfinals.

In other results Sunday, Jim Lowe took a 1-up triumph over Gordon Jones, Steve Bock eliminated John Radican, 4 and 2, and Gene Chadwell won the 17th and 18th holes for a 1-up decision over R. B. Lau.

Spangler will meet Lowe and Bock will take on Chadwell next Sunday.

Sex Killer Sought In Double Murder

Lake Arrowhead, Calif. (UPI) — Sheriff's deputies launched a massive manhunt Sunday for a sex killer who put plastic drycleaning bags over the heads of a young boy and girl, bound their hands and let them suffocate.

The nude bodies of Victoria Starr Caldwell, 8, and Paul Saltzman Jr., 9, were found Saturday in this rugged resort area lying in a culvert below a bridge.

The children disappeared Friday while playing outside a tavern in nearby Crestline. A tourist family who had pulled off the road in a camper north of Lake Arrowhead discovered the bodies 2 miles from where they were last seen.

An autopsy showed the girl had been attacked and that both died of suffocation. There were no marks to indicate manual strangulation and it appeared they died unable to get their breath and unable to tear the plastic bags away.

More than 30 detectives under Sheriff Frank Bland were searching for leads, questioning campers in the mountain area who might have seen the children in the company of the killer.

The children had driven Friday with the girl's aunt, Bonnie Ferguson, to Herb's Corral on Lake Drive where they met the boy's father.

The two adults went into the tavern, leaving the children playing outside. They told investigators that when they came out about 15 minutes later the children had disappeared.

Victoria had been spending a week's vacation with her father, Eric Caldwell. Caldwell and the girl's mother are divorced. The mother, Mrs. Dianne Miller, collapsed and was taken to Lake Arrowhead Hospital after being notified of the slaying.

EVERYBODY'S MONEY:

Higher Minimum Wage Demands Are Analyzed

By Merryle S. Rukeyser

In this tense election campaign period, it is visionary to assume that the interferences with pure capitalism for the past 35 years can be ignored in fresh policymaking.

The principle can be illustrated by reference to the current agitation for a higher national minimum wage.

George Meany, president, AFL-CIO, recently remarked: "To eliminate the plight of America's working poor, we can use a piece of sound, social legislation already on the books — the Fair Labor Standards Act — amendments adopted by the 80th Congress substantially improved the law to millions of additional workers, including some farm workers. They created a foundation from which it will be relatively easy to build a wage-hour law which will abolish poverty in America for every worker and his family."

"This means — at today's prices — a $2 an hour minimum, with no discounts for agriculture or other categories, extended to cover the 12 million workers now excluded. The result would be an end to the most indefensible form of poverty in America — the poverty of the working poor."

Past Reaction

Three decades ago doctrinaire economic purists would have met Meany's recommendation for a higher and more universal minimum wage with scorn. They would have then pointed out that raising the mandatory wage above what those at the bottom of the employment scale are able to earn and produce would tend to make such groups unemployable by law and put them on relief.

But in these recent years of New Deal, Fair Deal, the New Frontier and Great Society, a new ingredient has been introduced. Even at the present scale of minimum wages, in some communities, such as New York City, high nontaxable relief payments for a family of four make unproductive idleness more profitable than self supporting work.

In other words, instead of wages being conditioned as they technically should be primarily by the productivity of the worker, practical minimum wages are now being affected by the competition of generous payments to the idle for not working.

In a strike of common labor in hospitals who performed unattractive chores, it was argued that there must be a high wage rate to give such persons an incentive to take on "dirty work" instead of sitting passively and collecting welfare payments.

Inflationary Effect

When wage payments, minimum or otherwise, are governed by factors other than the productivity of the employed worker, including giving a sufficient incentive differential over relief payments, then the net effect on the national economy is inflationary. And in stock market terms inflation breeds a demand for common stocks as long term investments and such innovations as variable annuities based on common stock investment by life insurance companies.

One difficulty with using social arguments to intervene in competition and substitute a "mixed economy" for competition is that an adjustment here calls for an offsetting adjustment elsewhere, and the system not only becomes "mixed" but enormously complex and bureaucratic.

No humane person can quarrel with Meany's desire to get men and women in low brackets to earn more. The issue is whether the situation is to be corrected, on the one hand, by a mere fiat of law which arbitrarily values a dollar of productive work at $2.00, thus breeding inflation, or whether through education, technical training and individual motivation the worker is to be upgraded and made more productive, on the other.

In these politically charged days of high emotionalism, there is a tendency to look at only one side of the equation. There is a naive effort to end poverty by legislation instead of concentrating on helping disadvantaged persons to learn to produce more and hence to earn more. To the extent a nation or a section of the country becomes more productive, it is transformed into a better market place and it can more widely diffuse the greater affluence made feasible in these times by advanced technology and sophisticated management methods.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries from readers concerning their financial problems. Letters with stamped, self-addressed envelopes should be sent in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of general interest will be answered in this column. Others, to the extent time permits, will be handled by mail.)

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N. Y. (Special): A scientific research institute has discovered a medication which has the ability in most cases — to actually shrink hemorrhoids. In case after case, the sufferer first notices prompt relief from the itching, burning and pain. Then this medication starts right in to gently reduce the swelling of inflamed, irritated hemorrhoids.

Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so.

And it was all accomplished without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H — an exclusive formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids. There is no other formula like it! In addition to actually shrinking piles and relieving the painful distress — Preparation H lubricates, makes bowel movements less painful and soothes the irritated tissues. It also helps prevent further infection.

Preparation H comes in ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 8 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 8, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you.
